Sharron McCarthy, a nationally respected food and wine consultant, is Vice President of Wine Education for Banfi Vintners. She is a Certified Specialist of Wine and the former President of the Society of Wine Educators.

McCarthy, who is affectionately known to many in the industry as "America's First Lady of Wine Education," brings warmth, energy, passion and an infectious sense of enthusiasm to everything she does. She has traveled all 50 states, sharing with others her knowledge and enthusiasm for the joy of wine. Sharron is one of the wine industry's most popular and effective guest speakers.

We look forward to having her here with us for a wonderful evening of Tuscan wine and food at Luigi's.

Due to the limited seating available, a credit card will be required to hold the reservation. The cancellation policy is as follows: No show or Same day cancellations will be charged full amount. Full amount is $70 plus tax and gratuity: $89.60
