Organic Wine and Biodynamic Wine

Due to the interest many of our guests have shown in the past regarding “organic wine”, we have chosen to identify those producers who are following the protocols established by the governing bodies in their respective countries that allow for these Organic and Biodynamic classifications to exist. They are displayed in the list as follows:

Organic Wine

Biodynamic Wine

Organic Wine: The term "organic wine" refers to wine made from organically-certified grapes, and since 2012 the winemaking process has also been regulated under the term ‘Organic Wine’. This means that they are grown WITHOUT the use of synthetic pesticides, herbicides, fungicides and fertilizers. All of the bugs, weeds, and pests are managed using all natural substances, and the fertilizers used to nourish the vines are also 100% natural. For example weeds can be removed mechanically, and natural composts can be used as fertilizers.

Note: While the EU (European Union) has common standards for ‘Organic Wine’, each country can have their own unique standards for "organic".

In the U.S. for example, the U.S. Department of Agriculture can certify that a wine is organic. These bottles are labelled and sold as "USDA-Certified Organic". In order to be certified organic, the grapes have to be grown according to organic farming standards, and in contrast to the EU rules, the wine cannot have added sulphites.

Biodynamic Wine: Biodynamic agriculture is a holistic approach to farming that goes beyond ‘organic’. It views the farm as a closed ecosystem, where nothing should be brought in from outside, and nothing wasted (the ideal farm is mixed use, with livestock providing manure for compost, but wine estates without livestock will purchase biodynamic compost).

While organic farming bans the use of synthetic products, biodynamics goes further by stipulating the use of eight ‘preparations’ to enhance the life of the soil. Minerals and herbs such as nettles and dandelion flowers mixed in water in very low concentrations are sprayed in the vineyards.

One important concept behind biodynamics is the belief that everything--the crops, the soil, the farmer, the universe - is interconnected. The sun, moon, planets, and stars all affect the growing of crops. Viticulturists growing grapes for biodynamic wine will try to balance the connection between the farmer, the vine, the earth itself, and the celestial bodies.

This may sound a bit unusual to some people, but it's a holistic form of agriculture that has become widely practiced in Europe, Australia, and the New World. Since its introduction in the 1920s, by Austrian philosopher Rudolph Steiner, it has become one of the most accepted forms of organic viticulture.

For a wine to be sold as "biodynamic", it must be certified by an organization such as Demeter or Biodyvin. Demeter certifies the majority of biodynamic wines, but a large number of French vineyards prefer to obtain the Biodyvin certification as well. To obtain certification, the wines must follow the viticulture and vinification rules established by these organizations.

- 262 Codorniu Anna de Codorniu Cava Brut NV, Penedés Spain 26.00
One of Spain's first wine families, Codorniu has for more than 450 years produced some of the country's finest wines. Cava is produced using Method Champenoise, the same as houses of Champagne, France. "This shows some richness, with Jonagold apple, honey, candied citrus peel and vanilla notes. There's juicy acidity for balance, with a creamy texture and a lingering finish. Drink now." 88 WS
- 261 Bisol Jeio Prosecco Brut Rosé NV, Veneto Italy 30.00
The Bisol Estate is one of the oldest in the region of Valdobbiadene area. The winery was founded in 1858 by Eliseo Bisol, who was well known for his distillery. Quality has continued to be driving force over the generations. In the last 30 years the Bisol brothers have succeeded in achieving a balance between tradition and modern technology. "The NV Prosecco Brut Rose Jeio is made from equal parts Merlot and Pinot Noir. It is a fairly restrained wine with excellent balance and a refined mousse. I am not generally a fan of rose Prosecco, a category that has been created to exploit the growing popularity of both roses and sparkling wines, yet everything here works beautifully, and this is one of the very few examples that merit attention." 87 WA
- 254 Bisol Prosecco di Valdobbiadene Crede DOC NV, Veneto Italy 36.00
"A vinous sparkler with expansive flavors of kumquat, peach and nuts, this offers a rich textural depth while holding to freshness and delicacy. It finishes firm and clean, with lasting freshness that would enhance any cream based noodle soup." 93 pts Wine and Spirits
- 256 Schramsberg Brut Blanc de Blancs 2015, North Coast, California 67.00
Blanc de Blancs was the first wine Schramsberg produced in 1965 and was America's first commercially produced Chardonnay-based brut sparkling wine. Schramsberg Blanc de Blancs gained international recognition in 1972 when then President Nixon served the wine at the historic "Toast to Peace" in Beijing, China. It is 100% Chardonnay with a county composition of 54% Napa and 46% Sonoma.
- 265 Nicolas Feuillatte Brut Reserve NV, Champagne, France 70.00
Nicolas Feuillatte bought 12 hectares of vineyard in Champagne in 1972 and established Nicolas Feuillatte in 1976. Through the 70s and 80s the Nicolas Feuillatte brand grew, until in 1986 he made the decision to sell the to the Cave Vinicole de la Champagne cooperative, which acquired both his vineyards and his brand. It was a match made in heaven, as the brand has continued to thrive under its new ownership, mostly through innovation and high standard of quality. It is composed of 20% of the Chardonnay grape variety, for elegance and delicacy, 40% of Pinot Noir, for roundness and structure and 40% of Pinot Meunier for fruitiness. "Chalky in texture and fresh, this version features a hint of smoky minerality underscoring the flavors of ripe pear, candied black currant and lemon meringue pie. Drink now through 2018." 90 WS

- 263 Nicolas Feuillatte Brut Rosé NV, Champagne, France 85.00
"A lively sparkling rosé, with a bright, citrusy overtone to fruit-forward flavors of strawberry puree and black raspberry, showing accents of biscuit, walnut skin and gumdrop. Drink now through 2016." 91 WS
- 253 Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label, NV, Champagne, France 105.00
Veuve Clicquot translates to the "Widow Clicquot". Born in 1777, Nicole Barbe Ponsardin married François Clicquot in 1798. Widowed at the age of 27, she took over her deceased husband's business. At a time when Europe was torn by war, she was shipping her wines throughout the world. The famous Yellow Label has come to be recognized throughout the world as a symbol of tradition, elegance, style in the art of living.
- 270 Egly-Ouriet Brut Tradition Grand Cru, NV, Champagne, France 112.00
Winemaker Francis Egly has earned a place at the very top of the grower Champagne elite, and his wines have achieved "cult" status. You'll find Egly in the cellars of those who know that while Krug and other top producers can easily be had for a certain (often exaggerated) price, Egly Champagne is both rare and exceptional. Egly Champagne is produced in microscopic quantities; it has few peers in terms of quality; and if you appreciate fine Champagne, it is certainly worth going any length to acquire. "One of the most under-the-radar Champagne houses to the public-at-large, Egly-Ouriet enjoys an incredible following amongst the most knowledgeable wine professionals. Whenever I see this wine at a trade/media tasting, there is always a line of people waiting patiently for a taste. The Brut Tradition Grand Cru—made from 75% Pinot Noir, 25% Chardonnay from 35- to 40-year-old vines—exhibits exquisite elegance. Complex and intricate—with flavors of green apples, mineral, yeast, and dried citrus rind from start to finish." 95 WW, 93 WA
- 272 Duval-Leroy Brut Rosé NV, Champagne, France 125.00
"Offers plenty of structure and a dry profile, with light berry, cherry and gingerbread flavors. Remains harmonious and elegant through the lingering finish. Drink now through 2012. 6,000 cases made." 91 WS
- 264 Billecart-Salmon Brut Rosé NV, Champagne, France (750 ml) 140.00
Billecart-Salmon is a medium-sized champagne house in Mareuil-sur-Ay, France. Founded in 1818 with the marriage of Nicolas François Billecart and Elisabeth Salmon, it is one of the few to remain family owned. "This is clearly one of my favorite rosé Champagnes out there. I love the freshness and clarity in the wine, from its light pink color to crisp acidity and mineral, chalky character on the finish. It's full-bodied and dense yet agile with amazing length and beauty. Refreshing and vibrant. As it warms, it gives you delicate pinot noir character like Aloxe-Corton or another excellent appellation. Drink now." 95 JS
- 257 Bollinger Brut Champagne La Grande Année 2000, Champagne, France 245.00
"Full, creamy and soft, this is a rich Champagne, very much a food wine. It has great ripe swathes of peach and pineapple flavors, rounded by toast. While 2000 is not a vintage for aging, this opulent Champagne may be the exception. 2,500 cases imported." 95 pts WE

Italian Red Wines

Southern Italy- Abruzzi, Puglia, Campania, Sicilia

-Abruzzo

- 479 Masciarelli Marina Cvetic Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, DOCG 2015 46.00
What happens when you try to force a wild montepulciano to wear the chains of the international style? You get something like Marina Cvetic, named for the winemaker's wife, who must be one hell of a woman. "Sourced from the winery's San Martino estate in Chieti, this wine is inviting in aromas of clove, tobacco and dill that waft over a dense core of red-skinned berries. The palate displays rich red-fruit tones underscored by oak spice, with fine-grained tannins and structured acidity delivering support and length. Give it time in the cellar to fully integrate; drink 2020–2025." 91 WE

-Campania

- 332 Masseria Felicia Falerno Del Massico Etichetta Bronzo, DOC 2010 55.00
"Aromatic hints of tar, pekoe tea and graphite mark this brooding red, with sun-dried cherry, grilled mushroom and sous-bois notes. Sleek tannins and clean acidity focus this through the chewy finish. Aglianico and Piediroso. Drink now through 2023. 800 cases made." 90 WS
- 617 Mastroberardino Radici Taurasi, DOCG 2009 90.00
"The 2009 Taurasi Radici represents a special selection of grapes from two areas: Mirabella and Montemarano. The first vineyard sits at 300 to 400 meters above sea level with volcanic, mineral-rich soils and the second is even higher in elevation with southern exposures and clay soils. Fruit from Montemarano ripens later and gives the wine the acidity and the tannic structure it needs for long cellar aging. Usually, Montemarano fruit goes to the Riserva version of this wine, and what is left over goes here. Radici is dark and powerful with full-throttle intensity and a touch of bright acidity. It shows good potential for a long evolution." 94 WA
- 349 Fattoria Galardi Roccamonfina Terra di Lavoro, DOCG 2007 185.00
"Terra di Lavoro is one of Italy's icon reds, and the 2007 is yet another in a series of mind-bending wines from the Murena, Celentano and Catello families. The 2007 Roccamonfina Terra di Lavoro announces itself with a blast of smoke, ash, red berries, flowers and minerals, all of which come together in a heady, exotic expression of Aglianico and Piediroso, two of Campania's thoroughbred grapes. There is incredible clarity and nuance in the glass despite the wine's massive concentration. The 2007 is a very unusual Terra di Lavoro for its open, accessible personality and ripe, silky tannins, both of which are on full display." 97 pts WA

-Sicilia

- 630 Mazzei Zisola, Sicilia IGT 2015 40.00
The Mazzei family, historic owners of Tuscany's renowned Fonterutoli estate and one of Italy's most highly regarded winemaking families, are proud to present Zisola, an elegant Sicilian red wine of great complexity, concentration and aging potential. Made from Sicily's indigenous Nero d'Avola grape, limited-production Zisola comes from the Mazzei family property in southeastern Sicily, just outside the magnificent town of Noto. "Bright Red. Perfumed aromas of quinine, sweet spices and herbs complicate red cherry notes. Fresh and juicy with youthful, chewy tannins and a peppery bite on the long finish." 90 V

Central Italy- Tuscany, Umbria, Marche, Lazio

-Carmignano

- 363 Piaggia Carmignano “Il Sasso” DOCG 2016 55.00
 “If there is one estate that embodies the potential of Carmignano, Piaggia just might be it.” Antonio Galloni. “Dedicated to the estate's paternal figure Mauro Vannucci, the 2016 Carmignano Il Sasso (with 40,000 bottles produced) is a compelling blend of 70% Sangiovese, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot. This vintage delivers ample power, yet the wine remains smooth and elegant from a tactile point of view. Sangiovese's identity emerges with aromas of wild berry, tilled earth and rose hip. The two international grapes serve to shape the firmness and structure of the mouthfeel. This wine is fermented in oak and later aged in medium-toast neutral barrique for 12 months.” 93 WA, 93 JS. Piaggia is a practicing organic winery with integrated insect and disease control.
- 419 Piaggia Carmignano Riserva “Piaggia” DOCG 2014 82.00
 The Carmignano Riserva is the flag ship wine of Piaggia, showcasing a modern interpretation of Carmignano's Sangiovese base blended with Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Aging occurs in French oak for 18 months and racked before bottling, with no fining or filtration. “A wine of explosive energy and power, the 2014 Carmignano Riserva Piaggia possesses an unreal level of concentration for the year. A rush of red cherry, pomegranate, orange peel and exotic spice makes a strong statement. Quite simply, the 2014 is a total knock-out. Don't miss it.” 94 V

-Chianti

- 368 Castello di Querceto Chianti Classico, DOCG 2016 28.00
Querceto refers to the "little forest of oak" in which the winery is nestled. The François family, which settled in Tuscany in the 18th century, purchased the Castello di Querceto estate and began the production of Chianti in 1897. By 1911, the estate had already won an international enological prize. And in 1924 it was one of the 33 estates that founded the Chianti Classico Consortium. Shows very clean and fruity aromas of blackberry and flowers. Full-bodied, with fine tannins and a fresh, silky and clean finish.
- 315 Fattoria La Ripa Chianti Classico, DOCG 2015 35.00
 Great care goes into the crafting of every bottle of Chianti Classico wine from Fattoria La Ripa. The winery property has a long and fascinating history. In the 15th century, La Ripa was owned by Antonio Maria di Noldo Gherardini, the father of Mona Lisa (the “Gioconda” of Leonardo da Vinci), who gave a smaller part of the property as dowry for his daughter's wedding with Francesco di Bartolomeo di Zanobi del Giocondo. Today, the property is devoted to organically-grown wines and olive oil, and the Chianti Classico is medium-bodied, food-friendly and delicious.
- 323 Frescobaldi Chianti Rufina Nipozzano Riserva, DOCG 2015 37.00
From one of the most historic wine producing families in Italy, the Frescobaldis. They have over 700 years and nearly 30 generations of family dedicated to the quality of their products. This wine comes from the Nipozzano Estate in the heart of Chianti Rufina. In 2015 the grape ripening was excellent, aided by the long summer, high temperatures and favourable climate. The wine has an intense ruby-red colour with a nose of red berries and lightly toasted coffee, lending complexity to the wine before giving way to a fresh and spicy finish. The wine was awarded 93 points by James Suckling.

- 304 Castello di Querceto Chianti Classico Riserva, DOCG 2013 39.00
Querceto refers to the "little forest of oak" in which the winery is nestled. The François family, which settled in Tuscany in the 18th century, purchased the Castello di Querceto estate and began the production of Chianti in 1897. By 1911, the estate had already won an international enological prize. And in 1924 it was one of the 33 estates that founded the Chianti Classico Consortium. "Here is a fantastic value buy from the heart of Tuscany. Darkly saturated and perhaps more influenced by oak aging, the 2013 Chianti Classico Riserva opens to a deep garnet color and velvety texture. The wine is slightly more immediate and boasts a thicker style with dark fruit and dried tobacco. Given the tertiary aromas already on display, I would recommend this Riserva for near-term drinking." 91 WA
- 602 Fattoria La Ripa Chianti Classico Riserva, DOCG 2011 63.00

Fattoria La Ripa is a property of S.A. Santa Brigida established in 1940. In the 15th century La Ripa was owned by Antonio Maria di Noldo Gherardini, the father of Mona Lisa (the Gioconda of Leonardo da Vinci), who gave a smaller part of the property as a dowery for his daughter's wedding. La Ripa is located on the border between the territories of Florence and Siena, in the heart of the High Chianti Classico zone.
- 339 Castellare di Castellina Chianti Classico Riserva Il Poggiale, DOCG 2014 70.00
Made from 90% Sangiovese, 5% Canaiolo, and 5% Ciliegiolo grown in the Il Poggiale vineyard, the grapes come from an elevation of almost 1,500 feet above sea level. The combination of high elevation and low yields results in a wine that manages to simultaneously show both restraint and layered richness. This classic red holds great aging capability.
- 564 Antinori Chianti Classico Tenute Marchese Antinori Riserva, DOCG 2015 75.00
Marchese Antinori is produced exclusively from the finest, most highly selected grapes grown on the Antinori Santa Cristina, Pèppoli and Badia a Passignano estates in the Mercatale Val di Pesa zone in Chianti Classico. "Tantalizing aromas and flavors of black cherry and black currant are shaded by toasty, spicy oak in this harmonious yet well-structured red. This is fluid, packed with mouthcoating tannins, energetic and long. Best from 2020 through 2036." 93 WS

-Maremma

- 378 Rocca di Frassinello Le Sughere, Maremma Toscana IGT 2015 46.00
"The 2015 Maremma Toscana Le Sughere di Frassinello is a great value blend of 50% Sangiovese, 25% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Sauvignon (aged in French oak for one year). This wine boasts a proven track record for its consistent value and accessibility and can be counted on for both. It releases a steady flow of dark fruit and spice aromas that build in momentum. The mouthfeel is generous and softly velvety in texture, especially in this warm vintage." 91 WA, 92JS

-Montepulciano

- 335 Fattoria del Cerro Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, DOCG 2014 39.00
The name "Vino Nobile di Montepulciano" tells you two things about this acclaimed Italian red wine: that when it was first produced, centuries ago, it was meant to be served at the tables of the nobility; and that it hails from the ancient Tuscan hill town of Montepulciano. Vino Nobile di Montepulciano was designated Italy's first DOCG wine in 1980, in an attempt to protect its traditional status and ensure its high quality. Italian law requires that these wines be at least 70 percent Sangiovese grapes (known in Montepulciano as Prugnolo Gentile) and aged for a minimum of two years. The result is a rich, red wine with great depth of flavor and complexity, but still bright with notes of red fruit. "A layered and ripe red with plum and chocolate character. Medium body, soft and velvety tannins and a delicious finish. Just right now." 91 JS

- 310 Avignonesi Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, DOCG 2014 47.00
-  In 1309 pope Clement V transferred the papal residence from Rome to Avignon, France. In 1377, when pope Gregory XI moved the papal residence back to Rome, some noble families of Avignon left France to follow him. It was at that time, in Italy, that one of those families became known as Avignonesi - probably to simplify an otherwise difficult, foreign name. Soon the Avignonesi family separated into three branches which settled in Rome, Siena and Montepulciano. It is not known exactly when Avignonesi's cellars were built, but they are doubtless among the most ancient in Italy. Palazzo Avignonesi was built according to a design by Jacopo Barozzi (called Vignola) in the second half of the XVI century and it has always been the cellars' seat. "The queen of the ball is the 2014 Vino Nobile di Montepulciano. This wine shows grace and elegance, and it pulls itself together with a profound sense of firmness and textural compactness. The quality of fruit is sweet and accessible, but the wine also reveals ethereal tones of grilled herb and blue flower that add to its good complexity. Avignonesi shows great results in a difficult vintage." 91 WA

- 541 Podere Sapaio Pappolo Toscana, Tuscany IGT 2016 39.00
- Podere Sapaio is located in the Bolgheri wine zone of the Maremma, a territory that runs parallel to the Tuscan coast in the province of Livorno and which is named after the town of Bolgheri. The owner of Podere Sapaio, Massimo Piccin, purchased the estate in 1999 and planted his vineyards one year later. The estate produces just two wines for the international market: Sapaio and Volpola, both of which are cabernet based Bordeaux blends. Massimo also makes one special wine for a friend of his, Paolo Pellizari (Bacco Selections), who happens to be our supplier/importer. This wine is called Pappolo and it is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. The wine is intense ruby red with blackberry, cherry, moist earth and vanilla notes. It is a modern and solid wine with great depth and an outstanding finish.*
- 462 Ruffino Modus, Tuscany IGT 2016 48.00
- Modus was first produced in 1997 from grapes selected in the vineyards of the Tuscan Estates of Ruffino. It was not, though, a new wine in the real sense of the term. Ruffino had, in fact, been experimenting with the cultivation of non-traditional grape varieties on Tuscan soil since the eighties. The wine's base is Sangiovese, blended with the non-traditional varieties Cabernet and Merlot. Modus' label features a compass that artfully represents the meticulous balance of all the elements that came together to give this wine its distinctive character: vines, sun, fruit, soil, dedication and the passage of time. "39% Sangiovese, 35% Merlot and 26% Cabernet Sauvignon. The 2016 Modus opens to a darkly enriched and concentrated appearance. This is a full-bodied Tuscan red with layers of black fruit, spice, tar and fragrant tobacco. The wine is dense, velvety and firm with soft tannins." 92 WA*
- 334 Ornellaia "Le Volte", Bolgheri IGT 2016 54.00
- Le Volte has always been a great introduction to Bolgheri blends as well as one of the best producers in the region: Ornellaia. "Black currant, blackberry and mint aromas and flavors mark this firm, linear red. Fruity yet savory, ending with a dense, wide swath of dusty tannins. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Sangiovese. Best from 2021 through 2030." 92 WS*
- 430 Antinori Guado al Tasso "Il Bruciato", Bolgheri IGT 2016 60.00
- "This is absolutely one of the best value wines you will find in Italy and I suspect beyond. The 2016 Bolgheri Rosso Il Bruciato is a blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 15% Syrah. With more than one million bottles made, there should be no problem finding it at your nearest* wine merchant. Once you do locate it, I enthusiastically recommend that you pick up a few cases. This vintage comes together with seamless intensity and smoothness. You get so much dark fruit flavor, paired with soft tannins, spice, smoke and dried blackberry. Il Bruciato pulls off its magic effortlessly. It doesn't try to be anything other than it is: Delicious." -93+ WA, 94 JS

- 418 Tenute Sette Ponti Toscana “Crognolo”, Tuscany IGT 2016 69.00
Tenute Sette Ponti's first release was the 1998 vintage Crognolo, named after a wild bush, Cornus, which grows on the estate. The blend of Sangiovese and Merlot from vines of an average age of 25 to 35 years yields a refined, elegantly stylish wine of fruit forward lushness. " Aromas of rosewood, cherries and blueberries follow through to a full body, tight and focused tannins and a long and flavorful finish. This is linear and bright. The tannins are wonderfully polished and poised. Hard not to drink now, but it will improve beautifully in the bottle. A blend of mostly sangiovese with a touch of merlot. Drink or hold." 95 JS

473 Tenuta dell’Ornellaia Toscana “Le Serre Nuove”, Bolgheri IGT 2015 92WS 110.00
A true ‘Second vin’ of Ornellaia, Le Serre Nuove dell’Ornellaia was first introduced with vintage 1997, resulting from the decision to carry out an even more rigid selection during the blending phase of the base wines which give life to Ornellaia. Produced primarily from the younger vineyards, the wine combines the pedigree of the flagship wine with freshness, accessibility and softness together with a structure, balance and intensity typical of the great terroir of the Estate. This wine is a remarkable performer year in and year out.
- 346 Luce Della Vite “Luce”, Tuscany IGT 2013 135.00
In 1995, Robert Mondavi of California and Vittorio Frescobaldi of Tuscany joined hands to create an Italian wine of extraordinary quality. Their partnership was the first of its kind in Italy, and their premier offering was Luce della Vite. The name means light of the vine in Italian, and was inspired by the morning sunlight on the way from Florence to the renowned winemaking region of Montalcino. The Luce vineyard—adjacent to Marchesi de' Frescobaldi's Castel Giocondo estate—sits at elevations of 1300 to 1500 feet, the highest vineyard site in Montalcino. “The beauty and polish to this are very impressive on the nose and the palate. Blackberry, blueberry and sandalwood character. Full body, ultra-fine tannins and an elegant finish. So crafted and fine. Drink in 2020. #38 Top 100 Italian Wines of 2016” 97 pts JS

316 Antinori Tenuta Guado al Tasso, Bolgheri, Tuscany IGT 2015 97 WA 185.00
The Guado al Tasso estate is located in the small but prestigious Bolgheri DOC, on the coast of upper Maremma, about one hundred kilometers southwest from Florence. This appellation has a relatively recent history. DOC Bolgheri was approved in 1994 and since then it has become an internationally recognized reference point for the Italian and international winemaking arena. This region has traditionally been planted with Bordeaux varieties. Guado al Tasso is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc and occasionally a small amount of Petit Verdot to best represent the complexity and elegance of the Bolgheri terroir. This wine has been produced since 1990 from vineyards on alluvial soils whose composition ranges from clay-sand to clay-loam with rocky deposits know as "scheletro". Notes typically found about Guado al Tasso include “This is the quintessential red blend from Coastal Tuscany..... offers beautiful intensity and purity, yet it also delivers balanced power and lasting persistence..... It is a proud Tuscan at heart.”
- 338 Antinori “Tignanello”, Tuscany IGT 2015 200.00
First made in 1971, Piero Antinori’s Tignanello is one of the catalysts of the Super Tuscan revolution (Tenuta San Guido’s “Sassicaia” was the forefather). “Tignanello is an object lesson in how to make Cabernet work with Sangiovese, the two varieties balancing and enhancing one another in admirable symbiosis” notes Daniel Thomases of The Wine Advocate. The wine is consistently one of the benchmark Super-Tuscans and is undoubtedly one of Tuscany’s most historically significant wines. “Dense and intensely flavored, with violet, black currant, blackberry, graphite, wild herb and spice aromas and flavors, this is concentrated and solidly built, yet also harmonious, vibrant and pure. Approachable now, but should be better in a few years. Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. Best from 2021 through 2035.” 97 WS - #24 Wine Spectator Top 100 of 2018

489 Tenuta dell’Ornellaia Toscana “Ornellaia”, Bolgheri IGT 2013 280.00

“The 2013 Bolgheri Superiore Ornellaia is an integrated and seamless blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot. Alex Heinz tells me that 2013 was a difficult vintage especially towards the early part of the growing season. It balanced out during the summer and allowed for steady ripening of fruit before the harvest. But 2013 was not as hot as 2011 and 2012 overall, and this edition of Ornellaia is beautifully tonic and shapely as a result. The bouquet is very developed in terms of aromas this year with beautiful notes of dark fruit, tobacco and spice. Those perfumes are just gorgeous. The mouthfeel is similarly intense with tannins that are still young, but are already silky and linear in nature. This vintage promises a long aging future.” 96 WA, 98 JS

481 Tenuta Il Poggione Rosso di Montalcino DOC 2016 47.00

The Il Poggione estate has been in existence since 1890, and has been owned by the Franceschi family since 1900. The company’s winemaking operations are supervised by Dottore Piero Talenti, who imposes a meticulous three-part selection process – first in the vineyards, second after pressing, and again after fermentation. Piero’s attention to detail in the winemaking process has resulted in the acclaimed Brunellos for which Il Piggione is renowned.

428 Camigliano Brunello di Montalcino, DOCG 2013 75.00

Camigliano is a relatively large producer in Montalcino, and undoubtedly one of the region’s showpiece properties—it’s one of those Tuscan properties that was once a medieval town populated by a multitude of families. The sprawling property, which covers more than 1,300 acres, was acquired by entrepreneur Walter Ghezzi in the late-1950s and remains in the Ghezzi family today; they currently farm about 220 acres of vineyards, most of which are planted to Sangiovese. This is a spare-no-expense kind of operation whose massive investments have included the wholesale conversion of their vineyards to organic agriculture. “The 2013 Brunello di Montalcino exhibits impressive balance and integrity. It contrasts the delicate sweetness of the fruit very nicely against the more ethereal and licorice-like aromas that come so naturally to Sangiovese grown in the spectacular Montalcino appellation. This is a fine wine from Camigliano, an estate that absolutely excels in classic and slightly cooler vintages like 2013. The winemaking is also impeccable, with balanced intensity and integrated tannins. There is a playful note of cherry sweetness on the close that I very much identify with the distinctive Camigliano wine identity. Some 150,000 bottles were produced. Congratulations on a wine well made.” 93+ WA, 94 JS

493 Altesino Brunello di Montalcino, DOCG 2013 86.00

Though the worldwide reputation of Brunello has encouraged a certain conservatism among Montalcino estates, Altesino has always been an innovative leader. The estate pioneered the technique of aging its IGT wines in small French oak barrels, limiting the time spent in oak to enhance each wine's personality. The resulting wines were a groundbreaking improvement over those produced by traditional methods. No longer overwhelmed by wood, they were able to display the unique characteristics of the fruit, with softened tannins and perfect balance. Altesino also was the first Montalcino estate to introduce the concept of “cru” wines, made with a special selection of grapes from a single vineyard. "An intense perfume of juniper, bay laurel, sage, rose and berries marks this silky red. The structure is there, yet superb balance and refined tannins help this retain elegance through the long finish. Almost ethereal in its presence. Best from 2021 through 2036." 95 WS

- 307 Casanova di Neri Brunello di Montalcino "White Label", DOCG 2010 95.00
Brunello di Montalcino Casanova di Neri is characterized simply by its white label, to the point where it has now been renamed "White Label" on the American market. This "Etichetta bianca" is born in vineyards that look to Montalcino from the east, at an altitude which varies from 350 to 480 metres above sea level, very close to the cellar. The main characteristics of this wine are elegance, finesse, and longevity. It matures in large, used barrels for about 42-45 months and perfectly represents the estate's desire to express a product distinguished by character and tradition. "Gorgeous aromas of sea salt, savory, smoked meats and dried fruits follow through to a full body, with fine tannins and a long and intense finish. So beautiful and enticing. Goes on for minutes. Excellent quality for the standard bottling of this winery. Better in 2016." 96 JS, 96 WA
- 421 Ciacci Piccolomini D'Aragona Brunello di Montalcino, DOCG 2013 100.00
Ciacci Piccolomini is one of the most sought-after producers in all of Italy. The Bianchini family was gifted its Brunello estate in 1985 by Countess Elda Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona, who had no heirs. This ancient estate has 35 hectares of superior holdings in the prized Castelnuovo dell'Abate zone, including the 'Pianrosso' vineyard (meaning 'red field,' a reference to the iron rich soils) and the 'Fonte' vineyard, which produces grapes for the Rosso di Montalcino. "Exuding cherry, strawberry, floral and tobacco aromas and flavors, this effusive, fruity style is bright and elegant, with terrific harmony and a long, mouthwatering finish that leaves a mineral impression. Very compelling." 96 WS
- 438 Fattoria La Gerla Brunello di Montalcino, DOCG 2013 110.00
The La Gerla property is situated at 320 metres above sea level, on the gentle slopes below Montalcino. This small wine estate has established itself as one of the great crùs in this territory in the heart of Tuscany, delineated by the Orcia and Ombrone valleys. "The 2013 Brunello di Montalcino is elegant, balanced and bright. The pretty luminosity of the wine's appearance helps to underline this positive impression. The bouquet is nuanced and layered with dried fruit aromas that segue to spice, tar and balsam herb. You get sassy aromas of licorice, tar and cola on the close." 94 WA
- 436 Ciacci Piccolomini Brunello di Montalcino "Pianrosso", DOCG 2013 128.00

This ancient estate has 35 hectares of superior holdings in the prized Castelnuovo dell'Abate zone, including the 'Pianrosso' vineyard (meaning 'red field,' a reference to the iron rich soils) and the 'Fonte' vineyard, which produces grapes for the Rosso di Montalcino. "Wild-berry, fragrant purple-flower and crushed aromatic herb aromas mingle with whiffs of tilled earth and new leather on this dazzling red. The stunning, savory palate boasts remarkable finesse combined with an age-worthy structure, offering succulent black cherry, raspberry compote, licorice and tobacco alongside taut, refined tannins. It's impeccably balanced, with bright acidity. It's already tempting, but hold for even more complexity. Cellar Selection" 98 WE
- 540 Il Poggione Brunello di Montalcino, DOCG 2013 140.00
Tenuta Il Poggione was founded at the end of 1800 when Lavinio Franceschi, land owner from Florence, decided to visit the area after hearing the stories from a shepherd, who brought his herds around Montalcino during the winter. He fell in love with the landscape and the people who lived in that area, and decided to buy land and establish a grape farm. More than a century later, Tenuta Il Poggione has established itself as one of the most highly regarded wineries in all of Tuscany, making incredibly powerful wines for collectors and everyday drinkers alike. “The 2013 Brunello di Montalcino lives up to the impeccable reputation garnered by this estate over the years. This is a profound and beautifully rendered Sangiovese that delivers bold and luscious fruit quality with black cherry and spicy plum at the start. The bouquet follows through with mild oak notes of smoke, tar and toasted nut. There is another aromatic component that includes crushed stone and dried herb or mint. This Brunello shows elegant evolution in the glass and promises a very long aging future ahead.” 96 WA

408 Casanova di Neri Brunello di Montalcino “Tenuta Nuove”, DOCG 2011 155.00

“This is another fabulous wine from Giacomo Neri. The 2011 Brunello di Montalcino Tenuta Nuova is a deeply layered expression with bold tones of dark fruit that are softened and enhanced by spice, leather, tobacco and balsam herb. The wine is very beautiful and polished with slightly less depth and complexity compared the outstanding (100 point) vintage that precedes it. Despite the vintage variation, this is a wine of enormous pedigree and importance. It is generous and confident with a presentation that offers purity, intensity and persistence.” 95 V

492 Altesino Brunello di Montalcino “Montosoli”, DOCG 2013 170.00

This small vineyard produced one of Italy's first "cru" wines. Located at the top of Altesino's vineyards is the prestigious Montosoli vineyard where ancient limestone soils with the 360 degree exposure combine to yield a Brunello of exceptional style and elegance. “Enticing aromas of ripe berry, chopped herb, new leather, tobacco and a whiff of eucalyptus all mingle together on this gorgeous, vibrant red. The stunning, savory palate boasts juicy red cherry, pomegranate, white pepper and star anise while firm refined tannins and vibrant acidity lend structure and balance. It's already extraordinary and elegant but also young and primary, so give it time to fully develop. Drink 2023-2043.” 99 WE

422 Falesco Vitiano Rosso, IGT 2015 26.00

“Available at a super low and attractive price, the 2015 Vitiano is an informal blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Sangiovese in equal parts. It ages briefly in barrique for three months. Informal and fresh, the wine offers bright fruit flavors with cherry and dried raspberry at the front. Subtle spice and tobacco appears at the back.” 88 WA

-Barbera, Dolcetto

614 Fratelli Alessandria Dolcetto d’Alba DOC 2017 30.00

Dolcetto d'Alba is one of seven Dolcetto-focused DOC wines produced in Italy's north-western Piedmont region. The wine is named after the grape from which it is made and the area where it is produced. It is considered the most notable of the Dolcetto classified reds, thanks to the considerable number of quality producers in the vicinity. This is a classic example of the variety; easy to drink through every day's meals. It expresses well the typical fruity notes and a round balanced body.

360 G. D. Vajra Barbera d’Alba, DOC 2016 39.00

The Barbera d'Alba DOC comes from ancient soils, traced to three different geological ages: Tortonian, Serravallian and Messinian. The resulting terroir produces a refined savory wine, charming and complex and easily combined with any meal. Great persistence and balance, with a velvet finish. Deep red color with purple hues refer to the sweetness of a dark fruit with refined elegance. Intense and rich on the nose, it is both fresh and harmonious: floral and fruity notes give way to hay, tobacco and spices. On the palate again fruits and graphite notes are rich and persistent.

- 341 L'Armangia Barbera d'Asti "Titon" Superiore Nizza, DOC 2014 42.00
The Giovine family has lived in Canelli since at least as far back as the late 17th century. Located in a small area of 18 municipalities on the banks of the Rio Nizza, the grapes come from different vineyards on the estate, planted between 1934 and 1990. Deep ruby red, with a purple shade at the rim, veering to garnet with just a few years of ageing. The nose is remindful of stone fruit, strawberries, violets, vanilla, almonds, with occasional smoky and mineral notes. On the palate, it is tasty and full-bodied, supported by good acidity. It provides an excellent pairing with red and grilled meats, game, roasts, cheeses and soups.

-Langhe and Alto Piemonte

- 607 Vietti Nebbiolo Langhe "Perbacco", DOC 2015 46.00
Vietti has long been an elite, reference-point producer in Piedmont but in recent years brothers-in-law Luca Currado and Mario Cordero have taken major steps to further elevate the quality of their wines across the board. Vietti's Perbacco is made from Barolo-designated parcels that don't meet the qualitative standard for the estate's multi-cru Barolo Castiglione. Perbacco is for all practical purposes a Barolo, but because it is bottled two months earlier than regulations permit, the wine is sold as Langhe Nebbiolo.

- 320 Le Piane "Boca", Boca DOC 2010 95.00
The Boca wine region, in the province of Novara, is the most eastern and highest (420-520 m) in Piemonte, situated between the Sesia Valley and Lake Orta nestled in the hills of the Lower Alps. It is here, that an almost forgotten wine producing area was revived in the late 1990's when Christoph Kunzli, originally a Swiss wine importer, was introduced to the tiny and little known region of Boca by Paolo di Marchi, owner of the famous Chianti estate, Isole e Olena. Since then, Christoph has been producing some of the most natural and exciting wines found in the Piemonte: totally expressive and quite unique with a wonderfully elegant and fine profile. "Le Piane's 2010 Boca is once again striking. Translucent yet deep and wonderfully expressive the Boca shows just how expressive Nebbiolo and Vespolina can be here. Sweet red cherry, spice, tobacco and mint gradually blossom in a super-finessed yet deep wine with class and pedigree to burn. Tasted next to the 2011, the 2010 is quite a bit more reticent and in need of time in bottle. The classically austere style will hold considerable appeal to traditionalists. Over the last few months, the 2010 has developed nicely, but it still needs time. What a gorgeous wine it is. Drink 2017-2030" 95 V

-Barbaresco

- 301 Moccagatta Barbaresco Bric Balin, DOCG 2010 119.00
 "The 2010 Barbaresco Bric Balin is my favorite wine of the year. It's a full-throttle Barbaresco with full servings of black fruit, spice, leather, tar, tobacco and licorice. The wine oozes darkness and richness, but then surprises you with a playful touch of sweet cherry on the finish. The structure and intensity are so big right now, you really need to give this wine more time." 94 WA

Producer Note: Produttori del Barbaresco

The Produttori del Barbaresco, or the more technically accurate name Cantina Sociale dei Produttori del Barbaresco, is a true cooperative in the village of Barbaresco, in the Piedmont, Italy. Cooperatives are owned by the members of a group, in this case the growers, who typically would not be able to produce wine and market it on their own based on their very small holdings. However, with a unified front and a single winemaking facility, all the vineyard owners can benefit from the strength of the group; the cooperative. The Produttori del Barbaresco was established in 1958 by a local priest from the village of Barbaresco, who believed that the local grape growers had to band together to produce wine in order to survive. He gathered together nineteen small growers and founded the Produttori del Barbaresco, which has become a standard benchmark for cooperatives throughout the world of wine-making. The first few vintages were made in the church basement and today, the winery stands just across the corner from that location. The managing director of the winery today is Aldo Vacca, who has done a brilliant job of securing fruit from 56 different growers in Barbaresco (all of whom are members of the Produttori), representing 250 acres of the finest vineyards. Moreover, Vacca has maintained a wine making philosophy of using only large wooden casks (grandi botti) in order to craft a wine that truly represents the local Barbaresco terroir. More than that, by favoring large casks over the small barrels that many producers find so appealing these days, each wine offers a special sense of place, especially the single vineyard offerings, so that the Asili Barbaresco tastes much different than the one from Rabajà or Montestefano. The winery makes wines solely from the Nebbiolo grape and there are three separate wine types: a Nebbiolo Langhe (Langhe is the larger zone where Barbaresco is located; Barolo is also part of Langhe), a Barbaresco normale, and the cru bottlings of Barbaresco (effectively the single vineyard wines), of which there are nine different vineyards bottled. What truly makes the Produttori del Barbaresco such an important producer is that it serves as a reference point for Barbaresco. Even if you prefer a riper, flashier, oakier approach when it comes to this wine, one has to look at the wines of the Produttori as the bottlings that define the classic style of Barbaresco.

Asili Vineyard: Aldo Vacca of Produttori di Barbaresco states that Asili is known for its elegance. “The vineyard is like a bowl, very protected and it gets very hot in the middle of the day. The wines have very fine grained tannins. And although they are very closed and tight in their youth, the wines of Asili open up with age to become the quintessential expression of finesse and elegance in Barbaresco.”

Ovello Vineyard: “Ovello is the northernmost vineyard in the village of Barbaresco, higher on the sea level and dropping down to the river in a 300 foot, abrupt bluff. It is a relatively large area with a number of subzones with West and East exposure, all sharing a similar calcareous soils rich in clay. The extra clay and the cooler microclimate give the Ovello its exuberant and youthful quality in the fruit and its fuller body, which defines its distinctive personality. Explosive fruit on the palate and firm, sometime rough, tannins on the finish, these wines always bring a lot of joy to the palate and deliver powerful structure, that needs some years of bottle ageing to balance out.”

Rabajà Vineyard: According to Aldo Vacca of Produttori di Barbaresco, Rabajà creates the most powerful of the Barbarescos. “Rabaja and Asili lie on the same ridge, but Rabaja is east of Asili and it is farther away from the Tanaro River. The farther you get from the river, the soil becomes more compact, reducing fertility, but increasing the intensity and body of the wine, with darker fruit and more tannic structure. It is less elegant and refined than Asili, but more robust and powerful.”

-Barolo

- 396 G. D. Vajra Barolo “Albe”, DOCG 2013 66.00
 Vajra's Barolo Albe is "Barolo di Barolo", a Barolo blended from vineyards only in the Barolo comune. Fosatti, Coste de Vergne and La Volta all have different southern exposures and add distinct qualities to the wine, they yield a complex and rich Barolo that will age gracefully for another 3 to 5 years, but is a an absolute pleasure to drink now. In fact, not only is this our most approachable and open Barolo, but it is one of the vest values on our list for all categories. "Vajra's 2013 Barolo Albe is beautifully perfumed, sensual and expressive in this vintage, with a bit less overt fruit and more aromatic/structural intensity than is often the case. The style of the Albe has always favored a more succulent expression of Nebbiolo that is quite different from the single-vineyard wines, but the 2013 suggests Vajra may be moving the Albe closer in line stylistically to their other Barolos, which I think is a positive. In any event, there is an element of restraint in the 2013 that is hugely appealing. The Albe is a blend of fruit from Fosatti, Coste di Vergne and La Volta aged in 75 hectoliter casks. The Albe may be the single best value in Barolo today. As for the 2013, don't miss it!" 92 V
- 369 Fratelli Alessandria Barolo “Gramolere”, DOCG 2012 95.00
"The 2012 Barolo Gramolere is the most complete and convincing of the three single vineyard Barolos. It is also the wine with most intense expression of site. Blood orange, mint, rose petal, pine, kirsch and anise give the 2012 its characteristic high-toned aromatic profile, while intensely saline, Gramolere tannins add backbone. Deeply coloured yet translucent, with notable freshness, the Gramolere is the star this year. Specifically, the 2012 is remarkably vivid, with all the nuance and complexity that only Nebbiolo can deliver." 94 V
- 426 Schiavenza “Cerretta” Barolo, DOCG 2013 94.00
The estate was founded in 1956 by the brothers Vittorio and Ugo Alessandria. Today, the estate is run by the second-generation Alessandria sisters, Enrica and Maura, and their husbands Luciano Pira and Walter Anselma. "Truffle, new leather, wild berry, forest floor and balsamic notes are just some of the aromas you'll find on this fragrant, fantastic red. Fresh and juicy, the palate doles out Marasca cherry, raspberry, cinnamon and pipe tobacco set against a tannic backbone and fresh acidity. It's firmly structured but also boasts balance and elegance. Drink 2023–2043." 94 WE, 94 WS

 *Giorgio Rivetti has unveiled a stunning line of new wines, and a few surprises as well, from his impeccable winery and tasting room at the foot of the Grinzane Cavour castle. Giorgio purchased a beautiful estate in the Grinzane Cavour estate for making Barolo. His vineyard graces a dome-shaped hill and is planted with 55- to 60-year-old Nebbiolo vines. - 353 Pio Cesare Barolo, DOCG 2013 118.00
"The Pio Cesare 2013 Barolo offers all of the plentiful qualities that make this such a memorable vintage. Because the growing season was slightly cooler compared to the two years preceding it, 2013 offers a great sense of freshness and brightness. Fruit was sourced from seven different vineyard sites (with much of it coming from Serralunga d'Alba). Starting in 2015, Monforte d'Alba fruit will be added. The tannins are tightly integrated within the firm fabric of the wine. Yet, the finish is round and supple. This Barolo offers characteristic aromas of wild berry, black truffle and cola. It is executed in a very traditional style with botte grande and a tiny part barrique to give the wine a tad more oxygen during its integration and aging process. " 95 WA

- 342 G. D. Vajra Barolo “Bricco Delle Viole”, DOCG 2012 128.00
 “Aldo and Milena Vajra are among the quietest and most introspective of Piedmont’s top echelon growers. It is the wines that do the talking here, and they do that ever so eloquently. The estate’s continued focus on excellence throughout their entire range comes through in spades in these new releases. “Offers classic aromas of rose, cherry and tar, with hints of licorice and spice. As this plays out, a tobacco element comes to the fore, along with leafy, eucalyptus and mineral details. Very fresh and balanced, if tannic on the finish for now. Best from 2020 through 2035.” 94 WS
- 308 G. D. Vajra Barolo “Bricco Delle Viole”, DOCG 2013 139.00
 “The 2013 Barolo Bricco delle Viole is a real head-turner. Sweet, perfumed, vivid and exceptionally beautiful, the 2013 is simply stunning. A wine of exceptional finesse and sensuality, the 2013 hits all the right notes. Today, the 2013 reminds me of the 2008, but with more depth, density and creaminess - especially through the middle - and slightly redder fruit tones.” 97 V
- 618 E. Pira & Figli Barolo “Cannubi”, DOCG 2008 170.00
 Chiara Boschis took over the reins at E. Pira e Figli in 1990 with a clear idea of what she wanted to accomplish: to marry the extraordinary power of Barolo with approachability, enticing elegance, and lush, intense aromas. She achieved this goal through strict vineyard management, careful selection, and impeccable vinification techniques: shortened maceration, malolactic, fermentation, and aging in barriques. ““The 2008 Barolo Cannubi sweeps across the palate with layers of dark red fruit, flowers, subtle French oak, mint, licorice and spices. This is an especially pliant, generous 2008 laced with expressive fruit and fabulous overall balance. The south-facing Cannubi yields a juicier more fruit-driven style than Via Nuova. The 2008 impresses for its inner perfume and overall sense of harmony. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2028.” 95 WA, 94 ST, 94 WS

Producer Note: Vietti

The Vietti family has been tending vines in Barolo since the middle of the 19th Century, although it was not until the ensuing century that they purchased their own vines. At the helm at this time was Mario Vietti, who subsequently ceded control of the family estate to his daughter Luciana Vietti and her husband, Alfredo Currado. Alfredo has been the true driving force behind the continuing development of this family business. A major contribution to the estate, and it would seem to Barolo as a whole, was Alfredo's conviction that individual vineyard sites should be vinified and bottled separately, bringing forth the terroir of Barolo's greatest slopes. This he did in 1952, establishing what has become commonplace amongst the top producers in Barolo; the bottling of single-vineyard Barolo. Vietti wines from the Lazzarito vineyard, Rocche, Brunate and Ravera vineyards have been bottled separately since then. Their Barolos have since become benchmark wines for the entire region. Sadly the world lost Alfredo Currado in 2010, but his son Luca has the helm and has continued the impressive offerings from this family run property in Castiglione Falletto.

- 607 Vietti Nebbiolo Langhe “Perbacco”, DOC 2015 46.00
Vietti has long been an elite, reference-point producer in Piedmont but in recent years brothers-in-law Luca Currado and Mario Cordero have taken major steps to further elevate the quality of their wines across the board. Vietti's Perbacco is made from Barolo-designated parcels that don't meet the qualitative standard for the estate's multi-cru Barolo Castiglione. Perbacco is for all practical purposes a Barolo, but because it is bottled two months earlier than regulations permit, the wine is sold as Langhe Nebbiolo.
- 449 Vietti Barolo “Castiglione”, DOCG 2015 88.00
With fruit sourced from various points within the Castiglione Falletto township, the Barolo Castiglione continues on its promise to offer a solid drinking experience based purely on quality Nebbiolo. This wine speaks more to the specific qualities of Nebbiolo, more than vineyard site. “The 2015 Barolo Castiglione is a soft and elegant expression with marked freshness and delineated fruit. Indeed, Luca Currado maintains that 2015 was not a hot vintage per se, and any jammy notes that might appear in the vintage may have to do with an overzealous approach to leaf pulling during the summer season. Old habits die hard, he says, and leaving the leaves intact contributes to the color stabilization of the wine and the successful management of its acidity. From an analytical point of view, this wine does flaunt that much-needed inner crispness. It adds focus and sharpness to the layers of dark, succulent fruit that appear on first nose.” 94 WA, 94 JS

655 Vietti Barolo “Brunate”, DOCG 2009 190.00

“From one of the region’s most celebrated vineyards, the 2009 Barolo Brunate lavishes on smoky, granite and mineral notes that make this wine absolutely irresistible. Even the drawing of a snail on the label seems to hammer home one obvious point: This wine is built for longer cellar aging. Its rich texture, velvety feel and firm structure are guarantees that it will become increasingly elegant and finessed with time. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2030.” 95 WA

-Gattinara

693 Travaglini Gattinara Riserva, DOCG 2009 110.00

Travaglini is a family-owned wine estate in the tiny Gattinara appellation within the Piedmont region. Established in the 1920s by Clemente Travaglini, the winery is Gattinara’s most esteemed producer of traditional, limited-production wines from the nebbiolo grape. Travaglini wines are easily recognized by their distinctive bottle shape, featuring a unique curve that fits naturally in the palm of the hand and serves to catch sediment during decanting. Designed by a glassmaker to celebrate the excellent 1952 vintage, the bottle was so well received that family decided to keep it as their trademark. “The 2009 Gattinara Riserva is a wine for the exceedingly patient. Huge swaths of tannin cut across a huge core of fruit in a Gattinara endowed with serious depth, resonance and intensity. Dark red cherry, orange rind, cloves, mint and saddle leather meld together in an exotic fabric of enticing aromas and flavors. Don't be fooled, though, the tannins are imposing and need time to soften. The 2009 Riserva is one of the best wines I can remember tasting from Travaglini in some time.” 94 V

303 Recchia Valpolicella Classico Superiore “Le Muraie” Ripasso DOC 2015 29.00

For over 100 years, the Recchia family has been mastering wine making. The family lives in the heart of Valpolicella, in the valley of Negrar. Wine making is in their blood. Their love for the local terroir and traditions makes their wines special. Ripasso is one of the most unique winemaking processes; a basic Valpolicella is transferred into casks holding the grape skins left over from Amarone production. This blend of 65% Corvina, 30% Rondinella, 5% Molinara is a deep ruby red with an intense bouquet of fruit, jam and Mediterranean spices. A harmonic full-bodied taste that lingers on the palate.

311 Allegrini “Palazzo Della Torre”, IGT 2014 34.00

The Allegrini farm is based in Fumane di Valpolicella. The Allegrini family has been handing down grape farming and wine producing traditions in this small but important town in the Valpolicella Classico area since the 16th century. The techniques used for this wine's production are completely innovative and untraditional. Palazzo della Torre is made from traditional Veneto grapes. 70% of the grapes are vinified immediately. The remaining 30% are left to dry until the end of December when they are vinified and then refermented with the wine from the fresh grapes giving the wine an extra dimension of richness and body “What a delicious nose of brambleberries, vanilla, mocha-scented oak, spice box, plum liqueur, licorice and milk chocolate. Full-bodied and rich with plenty of dense fruit and fresh acidity that carries this to a long finish. Almost verges on too much but pulls back. Drink now or hold.” 93 JS

- 601 Tenuta Sant'Antonio Valpolicella Ripasso "Monti Garbi", DOC 2015 36.00
Tenuta Sant'Antonio has earned its reputation as a premium and progressive producer of Veneto DOC wines (Amarone, Valpolicella, Ripasso, Passito, Soave and Recioto della Valpolicella), as well as Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon. Tenuta Sant'Antonio wines are made from 100% estate-grown fruit from its vineyards in Soave in the Val d'Illasi, and Monti Garbi, its 124-acre estate vineyard site in Valpolicella.
- 634 Stefano Accordini Valpolicella Ripasso "Acinatico", DOC 2016 44.00
This estate winery has deep country roots: the founders have been share-croppers, then landowners and finally wine-makers. The company is led by Stefano himself helped by his wife Giuseppina and his two sons, Tiziano and Daniele. The family estate extends over 4 hectares situated in Negrar, the heart of Valpolicella, in a place called Bessole. The Valpolicella Ripasso is obtained by "re-passing" of the Valpolicella wine on the dried grape skins of Amarone, still warm and rich in sugar. The Valpolicella remains in contact with the pomace of Amarone for 10/12 days; during this period, a second alcoholic fermentation occurs. Ripasso method gives to Valpolicella wine a better structure and a lower acidity, it is more rounded and it is suitable for aging in barrels for 18 months. Accordini Acinatico Ripasso 2014 obtained the Crown, the highest recognition of the Guide ViniBuoni di Italia.

Production Note: Amarone della Valpolicella

Amarone is one of Italy's treasured wines, not only because of the intensely flavored wines themselves, but also due to the fascinating production method that helps to create them. Amarones are produced in the Veneto region in northeastern Italy by the same producers who make Valpolicella, a light easy drinking red. Made from local varieties Corvina, Molinara, and Rondinella, winemakers were looking for a way to increase aromatic intensity, flavor profile, and age worthiness of their valpolicellas. In order to concentrate the natural sugars of the grapes, winemakers began drying their grapes after harvest, to remove water from the berries, while retaining sweetness and flavor (this process was originally used to make Recioto della Valpolicella, a sweet wine- the first Amarones were considered mistakes, Reciotos that were allowed to ferment too long). Once this drying process (called appassimento in Italian) is complete (typically three to four months), the grapes have lost a third of their water and have shriveled to raisins. The grapes are then gently pressed and the must is fermented to dry, yielding a very intense, high alcohol wine. They are usually aged in casks or barrels for a minimum 24 months before being released. The resulting wines are usually big, rich full- bodied wines that tend to have flavor profiles of dark chocolate, dried fig and raisin, and earth and the wines should be paired with heartier fare like meat roasts or aged cheeses. Amarones usually require several to ten years of bottle aging before their flavors mature and the wines can continue to develop for 20 years or more.

- 425 Recchia Amarone Della Valpolicella Classico "Ca' Bertoldi", DOC 2011 70.00
The Recchia family is an artisan winemaking family which operates one of the most beautiful wine cellars in the Valpolicella wine-region. Their production encompasses the classic red wines of this region starting from their Valpolicella Ripasso, to the big rich Amarone. Ultimately, the Recchia family is recognized for delivering in Italy as well as abroad great value in this important red wine category. The Ca' Bertoldi is a stunning example of good value Amarone. The aromas are dark cherry and raisin followed by a deep and rich palate of tar, licorice, and resin and a lengthy finish.
- 366 Stefano Accordini Amarone della Valpolicella "Acinatico", DOC 2015 104.00
This estate winery has deep country roots: the founders have been share-croppers, then landowners and finally wine-makers. The company is led by Stefano himself helped by his wife Giuseppina and his two sons, Tiziano and Daniele. The family estate extends over 4 hectares situated in Negrar, the heart of Valpolicella, in a place called Bessole. This wine is medium-dark ruby color with smoke, baked berry and tar in the nose. Intense on the palate with youthful, rich, ripe black fruit, licorice and dried blackberry. Superb finish with great length.

- 318 Zenato Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, DOC 2013 130.00
The Zenato winery possesses a strong link to the richness of its local history and culture, and continues to develop this connection today. The estate is based in a territory that surrounds Lake Garda, with an extraordinary microclimate that allows for an optimal growing season. "A harmonious red, integrating fine-grained tannins and an aromatic overtone of fresh herb and spice box with flavors of crushed black cherry and blackberry, smoky espresso and fig cake. Medium- to full-bodied, with a lovely, creamy finish." 93 WS
- 325 Allegrini Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, DOC 2013 140.00
Perhaps one of the most consistent performers in the entire region is Allegrini's exceptional Amarone. "Very deep, saturated ruby. Fresh, piercing aromas of black cherry, violet, lavender and sweet spices on the nose. Then super smooth but dense, with wonderful poise and balance to the ripe red cherry, dark berry, aromatic herb and mineral flavors. Finishes long with youthfully chewy tannins and lingering floral nuances. Concentrated but tastes much lighter and vibrant than the majority of other Amarones made today; but the young chewy, grainy tannins pick up steam on the long finish and will require patience." -93 V

As an adult, Ron and his three sons Matt, Mark and Brad established Donati Family Vineyard in 1998. They acquired vineyards in the small town of Paicines, CA, located on California's Central Coast. The location enjoys long warm days followed by cool nights thanks to the marine influence of the Monterey Bay, creating an ideal environment for growing premium wine grapes. This full-bodied, well-balanced wine shows aromas of blackberry, leather and herbs followed by a medley of cranberry, pepper, and leather flavors. Rich tannins and a crisp finish ties everything together.

Despite the enormity of this enterprise (multiple wineries and a global network), the flagship estate in northern California, Beringer Vineyards, continues to be in very capable winemaking hands, and the quality of the wines remains exceptionally impressive, particularly when you look at some of the huge production numbers of their lower priced offerings. “A juicy and rich red with plum and berry character. Some spice and pepper undertones. Full-bodied, round and delicious. Slightly old-school but enjoyable. A little hot at the finish. Drink now.” 91 JS
- 477 Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignon, Rutherford, Napa Valley, CA 2014 80.00
 In 1879, Finnish explorer and adventurer Gustave Niebaum searched the Napa Valley with the goal of establishing a wine estate to rival the finest chateau of France. For decades his wines won acclaim and remain some of the most admired in American wine history's classic period. By the mid-1960's, his property was divided, and estate-wine production ceased. A decade later, Francis Ford Coppola purchased 1,500 acres of this historic property and revived Captain Niebaum's fine winemaking tradition. In 1995, Niebaum-Coppola acquired the remainder of the property and restored the Inglenook Estate to its original dimensions. “Soft and round, with an undeniable Old World-like balance, this wine shows dark chocolate, tobacco and tar notes. Its power derives from its complex texture, imbued with a smoky oak essence and clove and graphite accents.” 93 WE
- 345 Shafer TD-9 Red Blend, Napa Valley 2016 108.00
TD-9 is a proprietary blend that celebrates a bold move. In 1973, in the space of a few months, John Shafer went from riding morning commuter trains in Chicago to teaching himself to drive a TD-9 tractor in our Napa Valley vineyard. He'd never grown grapes or made wine in his life. He now leads one of the most acclaimed wineries in all of California. “The winery's proprietary blend of 58% Merlot, 26% Cabernet Sauvignon and 16% Malbec is hugely impressive and memorable, with a smoky, toasted oak character. Plush flavors of blackberry and cherry jam meld with spice on the rich, round midpalate. It offers plenty of grip and concentration, finishing on a handful of dried herb.” 95 WE
- 331 Col Solare, Columbia Valley, Washington 2014 110.00

From its inaugural 1995 vintage, Col Solare's mission has been to unite these two unique viticultural and winemaking cultures to produce a world-class Cabernet Sauvignon-based red wine from the very best Washington fruit. “Coming from the Col Solare and Quintessence vineyards on Red Mountain, the 2014 Proprietary Red is 85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc, 4% Merlot and the balance Syrah. Notes of smoked tobacco, black currants, licorice and a gravelly minerality all flow to a rich, multi-dimensional and concentrated yet elegant Cabernet. It needs short term cellaring, but it's a beautiful wine that is going to have 15-20 years of overall longevity.” 94 WA

- 411 Chappellet “Signature” Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, CA 2016 122.00
The "Signature" Cabernet Sauvignon has been Chappellet's flagship wine for more than three decades. It is a benchmark for the long-lived hillside wines of the Napa Valley; full of structure and ageing potential, yet seductively forward in its concentrated varietal character. The dry, rocky soils of the Pritchard Hill produce small, intensely flavored grapes. For Napa Valley standards, this is about as good as it gets for the money. "The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Signature has a very deep garnet-purple color and opens with wonderfully expressive notes of warm cassis, baked plums, black raspberries and kirsch with suggestions of underbrush, lilacs and chocolate box. Medium to full-bodied, the palate reveals layers of red and black berries with stunning freshness and an approachable, grainy texture, finishing long and earthy." 96 WA

Medium-bodied and totally laden with tightly packed fruit layers and great tension, it has a very firm frame of grainy tannins and epic length.” 96 WA
- 388 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon One Point Five, Napa Valley, CA 2016 178.00
Shafer Vineyards in Napa Valley, California, is an iconic family-owned winery, named one of the top 25 vineyards in the world by wine publication Wine & Spirits and “one of the world’s greatest wineries” by wine critic Robert M. The small winery is managed by father and son team John and Doug Shafer. Elias Fernandez is winemaker. Shafer cultivates more than 200 acres of estate vineyards. “Made of 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon One Point Five Stags Leap is very deep purple-black in color and gives up intense Black Forest cake, black berry pie and blackcurrant cordial scents with hints of licorice, eucalyptus, espresso, tar and chargrilled beef. Full-bodied, it packs the black fruit preserves flavors and earthy accents into the palate, with a firm frame and great freshness on the finish.” 95 WA

- 544 La Jota “Howell Mountain” Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, CA 2015 185.00
La Jota wines are handcrafted at the original 1898 fieldstone winery and hillside cave. From the low yielding vines of 28 mountain acres, they produce Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc. While growing grapes in the nutrient-lean, volcanic soils of the La Jota estate is a challenge, the rewards are undeniable. Highly concentrated flavors and muscular tannins slowly mature to perfection, while the cool winds, diurnal temperature swings and high altitude keep the grape acids impeccably balanced. “Blended of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8.5% Cabernet Franc, 7.5% Merlot, 6% Malbec and 3% Petit Verdot, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain is vivid and beautifully rendered, with a dense yet racy core of unadulterated cassis, boysenberry and blackberry puree flavors, flecked with anise, light bramble and polished ganache notes. The long finish shows a great tug of tarry earth while the fruit drives on. Best from 2021 through 2040.” 95 WS, 95 WA, 95 WE
- 319 B. V. "Georges de Latour Private Reserve" Cabernet, Napa Valley, CA 2004 210.00
“BV Private Reserve has been on a real roll. This Georges is enormous and impressive, gigantic in fruit, explosive in blackberry tart, cherry pie, blueberry, plum, cigar box and vanilla aromas and flavors. Structurally, it’s an impeccable wine, showing the fine acidity and firm, dusty tannins that always constitute Georges. Beautiful now, and should age well for 10–20 years, in a cool cellar.” 95 WA
- 461 Chappellet Pritchard Hill Estate Vineyard, Napa Valley, CA 2013 340.00

For more than four decades, the Chappellet family has been crafting world-class wines from fruit cultivated on the steep, rocky slopes of Napa Valley's renowned Pritchard Hill. As one of the first wineries to pioneer high-elevation hillside planting, and one of the few remaining great family-owned Napa Valley wineries, Chappellet Vineyard and Winery has influenced generations of vintners. Throughout its history, Chappellet has also established an enduring legacy as one of California's most acclaimed producers of Cabernet Sauvignon. "The flagship wine, the 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Pritchard Hill is a blend of 83% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Malbec, 6% Cabernet Franc and the rest Petit Verdot aged 22 months in 100% new French oak. This is a 40- to 50-year wine and simply compelling. Inky bluish/purple with a stunning nose of white flowers, crushed rock, blueberry, black raspberry and cassis, this is a great, great effort in this vintage, which is not that surprising, but this youthful wine still seems in its infancy and certainly has huge upside to it. It’s very deep and full-bodied, but still coiled very tight and restrained, this should turn out to be a tour de force and a great offering in 2013. Don’t touch it for another 5-7 years.” 98+ WA

"The flagship wine, the 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Pritchard Hill, 81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Petit Verdot and 5% Malbec, is a stunner and one of the great, great 2014s. Inky purple with blueberry and blackberry fruit, cassis, licorice, graphite and white flowers, the wine is stunningly concentrated, full-bodied and seemingly one of the greatest of the 2014s. Still youthful, with at least 25-30 years of upside potential at the minimum, this is a wine for patient connoisseurs. Anticipated maturity: 2023-2050.” 99 WA
- 344 Chappellet Pritchard Hill Estate Vineyard, Napa Valley, CA 2016 430.00

“The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Pritchard Hill has a very deep garnet-purple color. To smell the nose is like hearing angels trumpeting at the pearly gates! The most incredible and evocative scents come spilling out of the glass, conjuring notions of freshly crushed black raspberries, wild blueberries, red and black currant compote and raspberry leaves with subtler hints of roses, violets, tilled soil, cigar box and fragrant earth. Medium to full-bodied and achingly graceful in the mouth, the perfumed black and red fruits seemingly dance on the palate with a very firm yet beautifully fine-grained texture and just the right amount of freshness, finishing with epic persistence. Hallelujah—this is perfection!!” 100 WA, 100 JD

“Shafer’s flagship wine is the 2,000 case cuvee of Hillside Select Cabernet Sauvignon. Aged 32 months in 100% new French oak prior to bottling, it is one of the world’s great Cabernet Sauvignons, and especially to fans of California Cabernet Sauvignon, this wine needs no introduction. It is, quite frankly, one of California’s benchmark wines, exceptional in every vintage, and marked by characteristics that make it such: gorgeous dark inky color, intense and complex aromas of black currants, black cherries, charcoal, a multi-layered and fleshy mid-palate and superb opulence. The finish is always one to be remembered. It is a flamboyant wine that speaks of pure California.” Wine Advocate

621 Bond St. Eden, Napa Valley, California 2008 525.00

Bill Harlan and his team make the BOND wines through long-term lease arrangements they hold with vineyard owners in a handful of top hillside sites in Napa Valley. The Melbury, Quella and Vecina vineyards are planted with 100% Cabernet Sauvignon. The St. Eden vineyard includes 5% Cabernet Franc that was recently grafted onto Merlot rootstocks, while the Pluribus vineyard includes 13% Merlot and 11% Cabernet Franc. “The 2008 St. Eden is one of the richest, fleshiest and best-balanced of the 2008s in the Bond portfolio. Dark red fruit, flowers, minerals and spices are some of the notes that take shape in the glass. The 2008 has the mid-palate pliancy that is less evident in some of the other 2008s here. There is plenty of focus as well, especially on the long, saline finish. Tar, smoke and licorice add the final notes of complexity. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2028.” 94 WA

624 Bond Vecina, Napa Valley, California 2008 525.00

“The 2008 Vecina is a huge, strapping wine bursting with dark fruit, leather, licorice, smoke, minerals and tar. It possesses striking mid-palate depth and more than enough fruit to stand up to the firm, imposing tannins. Iron, graphite, smoke and minerals are layered into the dark, brooding finish. This is an impressive showing. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2025.” 95 WA

432 Opus One, Napa Valley, California 2015 575.00

A joint venture established in 1979 by Robert Mondavi and Baron Phillippe de Rothschild, Opus One may be considered the most widely recognized California wine in the world. In 1981, a single case of the joint venture wine sold for $24,000 at the first Napa Valley Wine Auction- the highest price ever paid for a California wine. Opus One is sold in more than 65 world markets and still commands premium prices. “Purity and brilliance on the nose with so much currant and flower character. Roses, currant bush and fresh leaves, too. Brightness is the word that comes to mind. Full-bodied and broad-shouldered. Juicy and so gorgeous now. Balance is so wonderful here. All about harmonious fruit and tannin balance. I like it slightly better than the excellent 2014. 81% cabernet sauvignon, 4% petit verdot, 7% cabernet franc, 6% merlot and 2% malbec. Drink or hold.” 98 pts James Suckling

"Tart black cherry meets plum, strawberry and clove, while softened tannins belie the wine's overall density and sense of generosity. A smoky waft of cigar amplifies the power and sinewy nature of the full-bodied wine, which is ready to lie down for a rest. Enjoy best 2020 through 2024." 93 WE

Pinot Noir

-California

- 389 Lander-Jenkins Vineyards Pinot Noir, California 2017 32.00
The winery and estate vineyards are certified sustainable by the California Sustainable Winegrowing Alliance. The critically acclaimed wines have been characterized as one of Napa's great values by noted wine writer Robert Parker. The 2012 growing season saw temperatures that were somewhat cooler than typical for Arroyo Seco but a brief heat wave in late September, early October accelerated ripening. Flavors concentrated and intensified especially Pinot Noir's classic strawberry over tones. The outstanding quality of the fruit shines through in this elegant and finely structured vintage. Winemaker's Notes
- 633 Hahn SLH Pinot Noir, Santa Lucia Highlands, California 2017 38.00
It was founder Nicky Hahn who suggested that the Santa Lucia Highlands be deemed a unique winegrowing district. In 1991, three years after he and fellow vintners made their appeal, the federal government approved the Highlands as an official American Viticultural Area (AVA). After the fruit for the SLH Pinot Noir is carefully sorted, it undergoes a three-day cold soak in open top fermenters. This 100% Pinot Noir is then aged for 11 months in a selection of French oak barrels. When the wine is ready to be blended, barrels are chosen that best exemplify the aromas, flavors and structure of the Santa Lucia Highlands. "Tart and candied berry aromas meet with tangy pomegranate and hibiscus on the nose. The palate combines more cranberry and pomegranate flavors with dried herbs, all framed by energetic acidity and firm tannins. Editors' Choice" 91 WE

- 324 J. Lohr Vineyard Series "Fog's Reach" Pinot Noir, Arroyo Secco, CA 2016 47.00
Founded more than three decades ago by Jerry Lohr, J. Lohr Vineyards & Wines crafts an array of acclaimed wines from estate grapes. Still guided by Jerry today, this pioneering estate vineyard program is comprised of almost 3,000 acres of vines in Monterey County, Paso Robles and Napa Valley. "The 2016 J. Lohr Fog's Reach Pinot Noir expresses the varietal terroir of the Arroyo Seco region as purely as any previous vintage, showcasing blue sage and strawberry fruit on the nose and palate, with dried cherry on the finish. " Winemaker's Notes
- 407 Melville Pinot Noir Estate, Santa Rita Hills, California 2015 50.00
Winemaker Greg Brewer and grower Chad Melville continue to knock it out of the park with these Melville releases. Focusing on site, if not plot, specific releases, neutral oak, no SO2 until racking and varying degrees of whole cluster are the norm here. The wines have individual characters and, stylistically, lean toward the more complex, finesse-driven side of the spectrum. They "wow" more for their balance and nuance than their power and richness. "ed cherry, dried rose petal and cinnamon-spiced melon show on the unique and alluring nose in this bottling. The palate offers a complex blend of earth and fruit, combining sour cherry with wild thyme, red flowers and dried sage." 93 WE
- 427 Walt Pinot Noir "La Brisa", Sonoma County, California 2016 58.00
In the world of Napa Cabernet, Kathryn Hall needs no introduction. Her impact in California's wine industry through Hall Vineyards has been felt since the 1970's. Walt is her maiden name and it is also Hall's Pinot and Chardonnay project. Walt celebrates Kathryn Hall's parents, Bob and Delores Walt, whose family dedication to viticulture remains the inspiration for their winegrowing efforts. LaBrisa is Spanish for "The Breeze," pays homage to the brisk coastal breezes that cool their prized Sonoma County vineyards. "Medium ruby-purple colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir La Brisa gives up lovely notions of violets, chocolate box and rose hip tea over a core of pomegranate, black cherries and menthol. Medium to full-bodied, the palate reveals loads of perfumed black and red berry flavors, supported by plush tannins and lovely freshness, finishing earthy." -91 WA
- 433 Wild Ridge Pinot Noir "Annapolis", Sonoma County, California 2013 65.00
Wild Ridge Pinot Noir is grown in a vineyard located on the far western edge of California's Sonoma Coast. The 900 foot elevation site is a stone's throw from the hamlet of Annapolis, an extreme setting blessed with a steady supply of cool marine air, goldridge soils and dense forest surrounding the perimeter. "The wine has a deep ruby/plum color and is made from Dijon clones 777, 667, 115 and Pommard Selection. It shows excellent ripeness, dark Asian plum interwoven with red and blackcurrants, soil undertones and a good, rich, medium to full-bodied mouthfeel. This is a serious, well-endowed Pinot Noir." 91 WA
- 330 Belle Glos Pinot Noir "Las Alturas", Santa Lucia Highlands, California 2017 69.00
Belle Glos showcases distinctive Pinot Noirs produced from top growing areas along the California coast: the Santa Lucia Highlands of Monterey County; the Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County; and the Santa Maria Valley, Santa Barbara County. The climate differences are significant, depending on the amount of fog, wind, sunlight and soil type at each site. Winemaker Joseph J. Wagner is a fourth-generation winemaker from a family with farming and winemaking roots in the Napa Valley since 1906. The name Belle Glos (pronounced BELL GLOSS), honors Joseph's grandmother, Lorna Belle Glos Wagner, a co-founder of Caymus Vineyards.

- 485 Walter Hansel Pinot Noir “South Slope”, Russian River Valley, CA 2015 80.00
This is an enviable winery run by Stephen Hansel with exceptionally high-quality Chardonnays and Pinot Noirs that he sells at modest prices, which speaks to his humility and commitment to serious wine consumers. “Made from 100% Dijon clone 777, the 2015 Pinot Noir South Slope had the largest yields of any of the parcels in 2015, although still way below normal production. The deepest color of many of these Pinot Noirs, the wine has loads of damp earth, spice box and forest floor, this is a deep blue-fruited Pinot with a lovely texture, plenty of body, surprising concentration and richness. This is a stunner from 18-year-old vines. Drink it over the next decade or more.” 94-96 WA, 95 V
- 400 Flowers Sea View Ridge Pinot Noir, Sonoma County, CA 2015 120.00
Flowers Vineyards and Winery pioneered the growing of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay on the rugged coastal ridges of the extreme Sonoma Coast. Joan and Walt Flowers had a simple goal, to make exceptional wine that captures the wild beauty of the land and the spirit of the Sonoma Coast. Perched on top of soaring coastal ridges that border the nearby Pacific Ocean, their estate vineyards, Camp Meeting Ridge and Sea View Ridge, rise to impressive elevations from 1,150 to 1,875 feet. “Pure and powerfully juicy, with concentrated red plum, currant jelly and dried strawberry flavors that are well-framed by toasty notes. The supple finish offers vibrant minerality. Drink now through 2023.” 93 WS

-Oregon

- 365 Elouan Pinot Noir, Oregon 2017 30.00
Joseph Wagner of the "Caymus" Wagners has branched out. After conquering the Cabernet world he moved on to Pinot Noir and absolutely crushed it with Belle Glos and Meiomi (California). Emulating his very successful sourcing philosophy of blending grapes from the top Pinot Noir regions together for a richer, more complex style than you could achieve by sourcing from one area. Soessentially, he sources top quality grapes from prime vineyards in Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue Valleys to produce this vibrant Oregon Pinot.
- 412 The Four Graces Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2017 42.00
Steve and Paula Black began the pursuit of a dream when in 2003 they purchased the 110-acre vineyard located in the Red Hills of Dundee and created The Four Graces. The Four Graces is aptly named after their four daughters – Alexis, Vanessa, Christiana, and Jillian. Brother Nicholas is recognized on the Reserve as "Keeper of The Four Graces." “Graceful and sleekly complex, with pretty cherry blossom aromas opening to poised raspberry, green tea and spice flavors that glide along the finish. Drink now through 2026.” 93 WS
- 340 Soter North Valley Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2017 49.00
Tony Soter’s history in winemaking is nothing short of remarkable: he founded Etude in 1982 and built it to one of the cult wineries of California. In the mid-80s, he began working as a consulting enologist in the Napa Valley, assisting luminaries such as Araujo, Niebaum-Coppola, Shafer, Spottswoode, Viader and Dalle Valle. After years of mentoring and encouraging some of Napa Valley’s most respected growers and winemakers, he ended his consulting roles to focus exclusively on Soter Vineyards and his family in his home state of Oregon.
- 691 Illahe Pinot Noir “Bon Sauvage”, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2016 60.00
ILLAHE, pronounced Ill-Uh-Hee, is a local Chinook word meaning “earth” or “place” or “soil”. At Illahe, the goal is to make wine as naturally as possible from soil to bottle. Illahe is one of Oregon’s few horse-powered vineyards; they utilize a team of Percheron draft horses to mow and deliver grapes to the winery at harvest. They work by hand on small lots with age-old techniques and materials. The focus is to grow and make quality Pinot Noir and white wines that express the vintage and their varietal characteristics. They don't use enzymes or additives. Some of the wines are made entirely by hand, with no electricity or modern mechanization. They use a gentle wooden basket press and age the Pinot Noir in French and Oregon oak. Bon Sauvage explores the wild side of the vineyard and winemaking at Illahe. Savory and dark fruited, it lives up to its name. Intensely aromatic forest floor and sweet black fruit set the stage for ripe black cherry, smoky minerals and herbs, all wrapped up in a long finish.

695 Big Table Farm Pinot Noir “Sunnyside Vineyard”, Will. Valley, Oregon 2014 95.00

“Fascinating aromas of orange peel, strawberries and fresh mushrooms follow through to a full body, layered fruit and ripe tannins. Hints of tar. Structured. Give it two or three years to soften. Try in 2018.” 94 JS

343 Cristom Vineyards “Eileen” Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2015 115.00

Utilizing Old World winemaking techniques - whole clusters, native yeast fermentation, and gentle and minimal handling - Cristom handcrafts wines that are smooth, elegant and subtle. These characteristics have earned Cristom distinction among wine enthusiasts and industry leaders alike, including being named 'Best New World Red' by Decanter magazine." Pale to medium ruby-purple, the 2015 Pinot Noir Eileen gives bold raspberry preserves and red currant jelly notes with suggestions of chargrill meat, truffles, forest floor and cedar. Medium-bodied, the palate delivers a solid backbone of grainy tannins and loads of freshness supporting the generous, muscular fruit, finishing with great persistence." 94 WA

443 Soter Pinot Noir “Mineral Springs Ranch”, Will. Valley, Oregon 2015 125.00

“Tons of pressed violets and lavender as well as blueberries, plenty of herbs, cedar, almonds and acacia come through on the nose, before ginseng, ivy and slate kick in. The palate is so structured with intense yet velvety tannins and layers of fruit and spices. Such tension in terms of the fine acidity but intensely full-bodied. A great wine that will age for decades. Drink from 2020 and well beyond.” 98 JS

486 Sitar Pinot Noir “Chorus”, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2010 165.00

Sitar Wines is an artistic collaboration conceived by vintner Dr. Madaiah Revana which brings together the craft of the winemaker and the artist under the unifying concept of music. Dr. Revana found the sitar, an intricate and challenging instrument, whose 23 strings require constant fine-tuning and maintenance, to be the perfect metaphor for the production of great Pinot Noir. So he enlisted his friends, renown artist Thomas Arvid to create an original piece of artwork to become the wine's label and Tony Rynders, former head wine maker at Domaine Serene, to craft the wine. Sitar Pinot Noir is a five vintage series that will showcase eh transformation of Arvid's original “Sitar” Label artwork; each unique vintage label will reveal a stage in Arvid's artistic process, from Charcoal in 2008 to completed oil painting on the 2012 vintage. The 2010 vintage is known as Chorus and was given a review of 92 points from Wine Spectator Magazine. There are only 300 cases produced.

Zinfandel and Field Blends

424 Seghesio Zinfandel, Sonoma County, California 2016 39.00

The Seghesio family first planted Zinfandel back in 1895, and their Sonoma County blend continues to be a benchmark of quality Zin. The 2012 vintage saw a return to the long, warm and mild growing conditions that Zin loves. To manage the large crop that was produced that year, Seghesio managed their vineyards with extensive crop thinning and canopy positioning. Combining spicy, briary, and lush Zin fruit characteristics from vineyards in the Alexander and Dry Creek Valleys, this wine was aged for 10 months in 60% American oak barrels (15% new) and 40% in neutral French and Hungarian oak. It's 87% Zinfandel, with the balance composed of typical Zin companions Petite Sirah, Carignane, and a splash of Syrah. For good reason, Seghesio Zinfandel is often seen on Sonoma County wine lists.

- 371 The Prisoner Wine Company “The Prisoner”, Napa Valley, California 2017 76.00
The Prisoner is a modern-day wine success story, launched by Orin Swift founder Dave Phinney in 2000. The Prisoner is a Zinfandel-based blend with the balance in Cabernet Sauvignon, Petite Sirah, Syrah and just a splash of Charbono. It was sourced from well-known vineyards such as Somerston, Solari, York Creek and Hudson. The wine was aged in a combination of French and American oak before bottling. This eclectic crowd pleaser has found a following from lovers of fruit-forward and jammy wines, but it has enough substance to please those who prefer their California reds a bit more structured. Not just a cocktail wine, this hefty red pairs very well with braised meats and barbecue.

Producer Note: Turley

“Probably no one in Northern California has done more for the renaissance and resurrection of old vine Zinfandel than Larry Turley. He started Turley Cellars after selling most of his interest in Frog’s Leap Winery to his original partner, John Williams. The Turley Cellars project was founded in 1993, and is now over 20 years of age. The great thing about Larry Turley is that he’s quick to admit he’s never met an old vine he’s not fond of. As a result, they farm and buy fruit from 35 different vineyards, with some of them dating back to the late 1800s, long before Prohibition. There are at least 30-plus separate wines, and some super-talented winemakers have worked for Turley – first Ehren Jordan and more recently Tegan Passalacqua. I have praised these wines from the beginning and, to my surprise, older vintages of 10 to 15 years – much older than I generally recommend drinking Zinfandel – have aged remarkably well. While Turley’s Petite Syrahs are probably 50-year wines, most of the Zinfandels are best drunk for their exuberant and robust fruit and personality in their first 8-10 years of life.” Robert Parker

- 444 Turley Zinfandel Juvenile, California 2015 85.00
Though the vast majority of Turley’s wines are single vineyard designates, Juvenile is actually composed of a variety of young vines that have been replanted in several of our old vine sites. We tag the vine when we replant it so as not to mix the brand new vine with its much older neighbors, then pick these young vines separately and make a distinct wine. The vines that make up Juvenile range in age from about 6-25 years, and we pull from 15 of our vineyards across California, including Hayne, Ueberroth, Pesenti, Salvador, and Vineyard 101.

- 381 Turley Estate Zinfandel, Napa Valley California 2015 105.00
“This vineyard is special to all of us here at the winery; right in our backyard, it’s what we see every day at work (and from the family home!) In 2006 we planted 6 acres of head-trained dry-farmed Zinfandel that compliments the original planting from ten years prior, all of which are certified organic.” Notes from the Winery. “Plush and polished, with an elegantly structured core, offering black cherry and licorice aromas and focused raspberry and dark spice cake flavors. Drink now through 2024.” 92 WS, 92 V

- 631 Turley Zinfandel Fredericks Vineyard, Sonoma County California 2014 110.00
“Beams of tannin and an overall dark flavor profile give the 2014 Zinfandel Fredericks Vineyard much of its distinctive, virile personality. One of the more structured wines in the range, the Fredrick needs time in bottle to soften. Even so, the Fredericks has developed beautifully over the last year. Intense red stone fruit, white pepper, mint and chalk notes, along with the signature mineral notes from these volcanic soils, give the wine much of its drive and overall focus.” 93 V

- 460 Turley Zinfandel Cedarman, Howell Mountain California 2014 125.00
“Another Howell Mountain cuvée, the 2014 Zinfandel Cedarman (15.65% alcohol) is broodingly dark, with rich, briary blackberry and blueberry fruit, full-bodied opulence, not the riveting complexity of the Rattlesnake Ridge, but still impressive, multilayered, pure and ripe. It contains a small amount of Petite Syrah. Drink it over the next 7-8 years.” 94 WA

Syrah and Petite Sirah

- 402 McManis Petite Sirah, California 2017 25.00
McManis Family Vineyards is a grower and vintner of premium varietal winegrapes located in what is now known as the River Junction appellation. The McManis family has been growing grapes in this region since 1938. The 2005 Petite Sirah is my favorite wine in the McManis portfolio. It is just like blueberry jam. It's incredibly supple and lively for a petite, with ripe tannins, a decent complexity and notes of spicy oak and licorice.
- 416 Locations Wines WA-5, Columbia Valley Washington 39.00
Dave Phinney, the mastermind behind Orin Swift (Which established wines like “The Prisoner”, “Saldo”, “Papillon”, as well as many others) has once again brought his creativity to the wine world. While standing on a curb waiting for a taxi at Charles de Gaulle airport in Paris, Dave noticed the ubiquitous international country code oval stickers on the back of cars. The proverbial light bulb went on to make a wine combining the best grape varieties from great “locations” in the world and apply the sticker as the label. Locations Wines was born. WA-5 is the 2015 “vintage” of Locations’ Washington project (It is made from 2015 fruit but not eligible to be labeled as such since it does not conform to normal US labeling regulations, hence the 5- all Locations Wines are handled similarly). The wine is a blend of Syrah, Merlot and Petite Sirah. The wine is deep purple in color, with aromas of wild blueberries, cassis, and forest floor. The palate has flavors of plum, milk chocolate and framboise followed by anise, black tea, and brown. Silky tannins encapsulate things with a very pure and true finish.”
- 414 Cayuse Syrah Walla Walla Valley “Cailloux” Vineyard, Washington 2008 125.00

Cayuse is really the story of Christophe Baron, a man whose ancestry dates back to 1677 in the Champagne region of France, where he was born and grew up. During his travels as a winemaker in the 80’s, Christophe came upon an open field littered with acres of softball-sized stones while strolling through the Walla Walla (Washington State) countryside with a friend. While others saw ten acres of the Walla Walla Valley’s worst farmland, he saw only enormous potential. And although many thought he was crazy, he purchased the property and planted his first vineyard in 1997. He called the venture Cayuse Vineyards, after a Native American tribe whose name was derived from the French word “cailloux”—which means “stones.” In the decade since, it has grown to seven vineyards, soon to be eight, encompassing more than 55 acres. What was considered by many a foolish gamble on that field of stones has been rewarded year after year with some of the most acclaimed wines in not only the region—but in the nation. His wines may be some of the most brilliant examples of Syrah on the planet. “The 2008 Cailloux Vineyard Syrah contains 4% Viognier. Expressive game, bacon, and blueberry aromas are given uplift by the Viognier component. This savory, rich, lengthy Syrah can be enjoyed now and over the next 10-12 years.” 97 WA

- This wine honors long-time Shafer Winemaker Elias Fernandez and his relentless pursuit of quality. Sourced from a single ridgetop vineyard adjacent to the southern border of Stags Leap District, the grapes for Relentless are a proprietary blend of Syrah and Petite Sirah. “Shafer’s Relentless project has been a huge success since the debut. Blending Syrah and Petite Sirah, aging* it for a long time in French oak, and not compromising on any element of the winemaking process has put them at the top of the Rhone Ranger sweepstakes." Robert Parker

- 613 Michael David "Inkblot" Cabernet Franc, Lodi, California 2016 49.00
One of the few Cabernet Franc's produced from Lodi, this varietal originated from the Bordeaux and Loire Valley regions of France and has been grown with success in many other countries. The grapes for this wine come from a 25 year old, 9 acre vineyard located on the west side of Lodi, no more than a stones thrown away from the winery. Ready to drink now or could be set down for a few years.

French Red Wines

- Bordeaux

- 480 Château Haut-Beauséjour St.-Estèphe 2014 56.00
"The 2014 Haut-Beauséjour is delicious and expressive, if perhaps a bit less exuberant than it was from barrel. Fine-grained tannins add to an impression of restraint while giving the wine lovely persistence. Graphite, gravel, herb and dark fruit notes add nuance throughout. Today, the 2014 comes across as not fully expressive. It is easily the most reticent of the wines in the Rouzaud family's range, which includes de Pez and Pichon Lalande." 91 V
- 488 Château La Fleur Cardinale St. Emilion 2014 85.00
"The 2014 Fleur Cardinale is a dark, sumptuous wine. Dark cherry, plum, rose petal, licorice and sweet spices are all pushed forward. Extravagantly ripe and flamboyant, the 2014 hits all the right notes. As always, Fleur Cardinale shows the more overt, opulent side of Saint-Émilion, and yet all the elements are beautifully balanced." 94 V, 94 JS
- 391 Château Lassègue Saint-Emilion Grand Cru 2015 95.00
The picturesque road that winds from the bottom of Saint-Émilion towards Saint Étienne-de-Lisse passes by a beautiful 17th-century "Chartreuse" (Château), about 1.5 miles from Saint-Émilion along the Côte de Pavie, hidden behind a few trees and bearing the discreet sign for Château Lassègue. This superb estate in Saint-Émilion today is infused with new life thanks to the passions of two couples and their families: Jess Jackson and his wife Barbara Banke, California visionaries in the world of wine, and Bordelais Pierre Seillan and his wife Monique. The 60 acres of vineyards at Château Lassègue are bathed in sunlight from dawn through dusk due to a remarkable south/south-west sun exposure and are protected from chilly northern winds. The Chateau and the wine's label are both adorned with a vibrantly painted sundial, a reference to the estate's sunny aspect. "Made by Pierre Seillan of Verité in Sonoma (the estate was purchased by the Jackson Family in 2003) from 50- to 60-year-old vines on clay and limestone, the 2015 Lassegue is composed of 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. Deep garnet-purple colored, it opens with expressive black forest cake, preserved plums and blackberry pie notes with an undercurrent of mocha, grilled meats, sandalwood and cigar box plus a waft of lavender. Medium to full-bodied, rich and densely packed with opulent layers of spiced black fruit preserves and chocolate box notions, it has wonderfully plush yet firm tannins and a lovely suggestion of background acid, finishing long and fragrant." 93 WA
- 483 Château de Pez St.-Estèphe 2015 105.00
Created in the 15th century, Château de Pez is the oldest domaine in Saint Estèphe. The Pontac family, who also created Haut-Brion, gave Pez its vineyards. The domaine was sold as a property of the state after the French Revolution and owned by a succession of families before it was purchased by Champagne Louis Roederer in 1995." The 2015 de Pez is dark, powerful and super-inviting. A rush of black cherry, plum, chocolate, gravel and smoke run through this gorgeous, delineated Saint Estèphe. Today, the Pez is virile, tannic and imposing, with noble character and personality to burn. The 2015 has really grown since I last tasted it. This is superb effort for the vintage, but my impression is that the best is yet to come for this chateau, where quality continues to grow. The 2015 is 51% Merlot, 44% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Petit Verdot and 2% Cabernet Franc." 93 V

- 406 Château Cos-D'Estournel St.-Estèphe 2004 197.00
"A beautiful example of the vintage, proprietor Michel Reybier and his top-notch winemaker, Jean-Guillaume Prats, have fashioned an exceptional wine displaying a dense ruby/purple color as well as a sweet perfume of boysenberries, black currants, cherries, pain grille, roasted herbs, and licorice. Medium-bodied with impressive density for the vintage, sweet tannin, and outstanding richness and length, it should be at its finest between 2009 and 2020+."--Notes from Wine Advocate #171. "Loads of currant and blackberry, with hints of Indian spices. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a long, caressing finish. Round and generous for the vintage. Best after 2011." 94 pts WS
- 350 Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste Pauillac 2005 215.00
"The brilliant 2005 Grand-Puy-Lacoste exhibits classic Pauillac aromas and flavors of creme de cassis along with stony/floral notes. Proprietor Xavier Borie has created a wine that should rival the brilliant 1982, 1990, 1996, and 2000. Full-bodied with sweet tannin and superb length (a 40+ second finish), the purity of this beauty's black currant fruit is something to behold. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2030." 95 WA

The family domaine was founded in 1925 by Pierre Gelin and is today in the hands of Pierre's grandson, Pierre-Emmanuel. Pierre-Emmanuel farms organically and works to minimize the impact on the environment in both vineyard and cellar. "Cherry jam and spice flavors reign in this succulent red. Features a solid edge of tannins, and all the elements dissolve on the lingering finish." 90 WS
- 326 Domaine Pierre Gelin - Fixin Les Hervelets 1er Cru 2015 98.00
Les Hervelets is one of two premier crus in Fixin that are not monopoles, the other being Les Arvelets. The two vineyards lie side by side at the top of the slope with a bit higher content of marl in the soil. The name Les Hervelets in local dialect means "the place where maple trees grow." "This is sleek and a bit stingy now, with tightly wrapped cherry, currant, spice and mineral flavors. Intense and persistent, showing fine balance and length." 92 WS
- 333 Domaine Pierre Gelin – Gevrey-Chambertin Clos de Meixvelle 2015 175.00
"Moderate wood frames equally high-toned if slightly riper aromas though here the earth character is more prominent. The generously proportioned and exceptionally rich medium weight flavors possess a highly seductive mid-palate texture that contrasts with the moderately firm and robust finale." - 632 Chateau Saint Cosme Chateauneuf-du-Pape, 2014 88.00
 Louis Barruol is the 14th generation Barruol to make wine at Saint Cosme. The Chateau was built in the late 16th Century on the site of a former Roman villa, and the remains of a Roman wine cellar, carved into the stone of the hillside, still exist in the chateau's caves. There are 37 acres of vineyards and the vines average 60 years of age. "Lush in feel, with velvety tannins that let cassis, raspberry puree and plum sauce flavors drape nicely. Light chestnut, warm brick and anise notes fill in through the finish. Shows solid length and depth. Approachable now but there's no rush. Drink now through 2029." 93 WS
- 593 Château de Beaucastel Châteauneuf-du-Pape, 2014 112.00
 In 1549, "Noble Pierre de Beaucastel" bought "a barn with its land holdings, containing 25 saumées at Coudoulet. More than four centuries later, this remarkable domaine, known today as Château de Beaucastel, is producing what most people acknowledge to be the finest wines of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. "The 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape is a beautiful wine in the vintage, and Marc compares it to the 2012. I'm not sure I agree, but there's no denying the quality in this 2014. Sporting a deep ruby color and terrific notes of blackberries, ground herbs, pepper and Provençal spice, it shows the more forward, charming nature of the vintage and is medium to full-bodied, pure and balanced. Drink it anytime over the coming decade." 93 WA

- 467 Bodegas Atalaya "La Atalaya del Camino" Almansa 2015 32.00
"Inky ruby. Brooding and slow to open up. Aeration unveils powerful dark fruit preserves, licorice and candied violet, with suggestions of fruitcake and smoky minerals. A spicy note enlivens the chewy, concentrated cassis and bitter cherry flavors. Supple tannins build through a long, smoky finish, echoing the floral and licorice qualities emphatically. Give this youngster some age or a decent decanting. Drink 2019-2024." 90+ V
- 429 Marques de Murrieta Rioja Reserva, Rioja, Spain 2015 45.00
Marques de Murrieta is named after Luciano de Murrieta, one of the founding fathers of modern Rioja winemaking, who established the estate in 1852 in the world-renowned Rioja region of Spain. Today V. Dalmau Cebrian-Sagarriga, Count of Creixell, leads the family-owned company. With a vision of innovation and respect for tradition, Marques de Murrieta is rooted in strong, historical fundamentals that shape the vision and philosophy of this iconic Spanish brand. "So fresh and elegant with more than enough concentration and structure, this is a fine example of a 2015 Reserva. Ripe-blackberry, licorice, smoke and bourbon notes. I love the velvety texture of the long, intense finish. Better from 2019 and with long aging potential." 93 JS
- 348 Bodegas el Nido "Clio", Jumilla, Spain 2011 69.00
Bodegas El Nido is a joint venture between importer Jorge Ordoñez, Miguel Gil of Bodegas Juan Gil (another notable Jumilla producer) and Australian winemaker Chris Ringland. The winery produces two wines that speak to both the past and the future of winemaking in Spain's arid Jumilla region. Monastrell (called Mourvèdre in France) is Jumilla's dominant red varietal, and the hearty vines yield only tiny amounts of intense fruit. Clio, a blend of 70% old-vine Monastrell and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon, is a nod to the traditional wines of the region (in Greek mythology Clio is the muse of history). El Nido, the flagship wine, is composed of the same grapes in reverse proportion - 70% Cab, 30% Monastrell - and represents the growing popularity of international varietals. Both wines are highly sought after by collectors year after year. The International Wine Report scored the wine 94 points and it was ranked #19 in their Top 50 Wines of 2012

- 354 Bodega El Porvenir “Amauta” Malbec, Cafayate Valley 2018 28.00
 The Romero Marcuzzi family took its first steps in the wine world when Roberto Romero started his first winery four decades ago in Tolombón, a few kilometers from Cafayate. In the year 2000 they decided to create a new project with a more exclusive target market, designing a premium winery to make very high quality wines. Cafayate is a small, isolated valley with very special characteristics—its desert climate and poor soils benefit the production of high quality grapes, making it easy to practice integrated, sustainable and organic viticulture. “Spicy with black and red fruits such as plum, cherry and strawberry, with a note of vanilla due to the oak. Sweet, ripe tannins make for a nice, smooth finish.” Winemaker’s Notes
- 347 Bodega Norton Malbec Reserva, Mendoza 2017 34.00
Bodega Norton was founded in 1895 at the Mendoza River Valley. The estate winery is located at the foothills of the Andes, at altitudes ranging between 850 to 1100 m. above sea level. The Reserva Malbec is approximately 60% grapes from Valle de Uco and 40% from Luján de Cuyo, and since the 2016 vintage, they removed the new oak from the élevage so that it is now exclusively in used 225-liter oak barrels. “Attractive spicy oak, overlaid across rich dark-plum and blackberry aromas. The palate has a very succulent array of fleshy dark-plum and berry flavors, the wood integrated well. Drink or hold.” 92 JS
- 568 Kaiken Ultra Malbec, Mendoza 2016 38.00
Lauded Chilean winemaker Aurelio Montes traveled across the Andes to make these wines, just like the Kaiken bird does when it migrates.” This deep brilliant red-colored wine with purplish tones displays rich aromas. The nose has interesting spicy and floral notes - a clear expression of a cool year - intertwined with black fruit aromas reminiscent of blueberries and blackberries that show this variety’s great typicity. Good structure and soft tannins call for a second glass. The finish is fresh, complex, and persistent with fruit notes and subtle spicy undertones of rosemary, thyme, and dry flowers.” Winemaker’s notes
- 358 Bodega Norton “Privada” Estate Reserve, Mendoza 2015 40.00
The Austrian businessman Gernot Langes-Swarovski bought Bodega Norton in 1989 after sensing the great potential of Argentina to influence the world scene. “Privada” was originally reserved for the Swarovski Family’s private cellar. It was first released to the public in 2004 and has been one of the highest rated wines from the Lujan de Cuyo. “A very intense nose of blackberries, mulberries, violet extract, charcuterie, Indian spices and really flamboyant licorice. Full body, lots of juicy, grainy tannins, tangy acidity, tons of dark plum fruit and a long, chewy finish. With a little less wood and more polish, this would have scored even higher. A blend of malbec, merlot and cabernet sauvignon. Drink in 2022.” 95 JS, #60 Wine Enthusiast Top 100 of 2018
- 435 Achával-Ferrer Malbec, Mendoza 2017 46.00
Founded in 1998, Achaval-Ferrer is a team of friends who dream about great wines. Achaval-Ferrer is also a collection of old vineyards in beautiful places. They are committed to the production of wines that are expressive of their terroir. They are a small winery because this is the key to top quality. Low yields allow the vineyards to express their personality in the grapes. Low intervention winemaking allows the grapes to fully express their vineyard in the bottle. Each of their wines is a different expression of Malbec: The Mendoza Malbec is about varietal tipicity.

Their Quimera blend is about Malbec as the key to complexity and balance. And their Fincas (Single Vineyards) are about how Malbec expresses different soils and microclimates.

- 413 Bodegas Renacer+Allegrini Milamore, Mendoza 2015 49.00
Formerly called "Enamore" in the US, this is a true collaboration between Allegrini, a renowned Italian producer of Amarone, and Bodega Renacer, a relatively new producer of high quality Argentine wines. The wine is produced like an Amarone; dried grapes, prolonged fermentation, and barrique aging. "Aromas of dried strawberries, blueberries and plums. Hints of licorice, too. Full body, round and soft tannins and a powerful, fresh finish. A blend of 45% malbec, 40% cabernet sauvignon, 10% bonarda and 5% cabernet franc." 92 JS
- 487 Bodegas y Vinedos O. Fournier Alfa Crux Red, Mendoza 2007 68.00
The names of the "Alfa Crux" and "B Crux" wines are based on the stars of the Southern Cross. This constellation is only visible in the Austral Hemisphere. The characterisation of the ostrich on the label symbolises the joining of the earth and the sky. The Argentinean Mocovi Indians captured this through paintings in the caves they inhabited and through different legends that were passed from generation to generation. "The 2007 Alfa Crux Blend is sourced from 20- to 70-year-old vineyards in the Uco Valley and is a blend of 60% Tempranillo, 25% Malbec and 15% Cabernet Sauvignon fermented in French oak vats and then transferred to oak barrels (80% French and 20% American) where it matures for 20 months. With classy aromas of cedar, dark berry, aged balsamic vinegar and spice, this blend is layered and holds onto its freshness and kick. Heady flavors of baked black fruits, coffee and spice finish long, with mocha notes and a creamy texture." 93 WA
- 361 Bodegas y Vinedos O. Fournier Alfa Crux Malbec, Mendoza 2010 82.00
"The 2010 Alfa Crux Malbec is sourced from 10- to 20-year-old vineyards in the Uco Valley, fermented in oak vats (14,900 liters) and then transferred to barriques (80% French and 20% American) for malolactic fermentation and further aging where it matured for 20 months. It is very dark-colored, quite young and primary, with upfront fruit, notes of violets and a hint of smoked peat. It is intense and powerful, with sweet tannins and an acid spine that lifts the wine and gives it great freshness. Drink 2014-2021." 93 WA, 94 WS
- 625 Achával-Ferrer Finca Bella Vista, Mendoza 2010 155.00
This is one of Achaval's single vineyard malbecs, which can be considered as some of the best wines of all Argentina. Very collectible and enormously complex. "Dark and powerful, yet elegant, with a delicious core of crushed raspberry, blackberry and damson plum notes tightly woven with silky tannins. The mineral finish lingers on with layered flavors of wildflowers, melted licorice and spice box. Drink now through 2020. 1,250 cases imported." 95 WS- #10 Top 100 for 2012

- 472 Bodega Catena Zapata Cabernet Sauvignon Nicolas Catena, Mendoza 2009 190.00
Nicolas Catena was the true pioneer of Argentine quality wine and is still the most important wine personality in Argentina. Bodega Catena Zapata has been owned by the Catena family since 1902. The wine that bears his name is the flagship for the winery. "The 2009 Zapata is from selected vines marked by a red sash in order to raise the wine with meticulous care. It is 10% whole cluster and 90% whole berry fruit that is aged in 80% new French oak for 24 months. It is pieced together from a mind-boggling 210 separate row micro-vinifications of multifarious lots and harvest times and is a blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon and 40% Malbec. It has a spellbinding bouquet that exudes minerality, as if crushed stones had been sprinkled into the black fruit. With continued eration, there are scents of oyster shell and black olive. The palate is full-bodied, with immense structure and backbone. The acidity is beautifully judged with filigree tannins that render the finish so elegant and refined, with notes of blackberry, soy, black plum and that stony aftertaste. Magnificent." 95 WA

- 404 Paringa Shiraz, South Australia 2016 26.00
Paringa Shiraz is a beautiful red wine gem from Down Under. The Hickinbotham family has a longstanding history in the Australian wine industry beginning in 1936 when Alan Robb Hickinbotham established the famed Roseworthy Enology course at Roseworthy Agricultural College in South Australia. Paringa Shiraz is intense dark crimson red with black, squid-ink hues. Aromas of blackberry and black currants are contrasted with dusty, chocolate covered espresso beans. The palate is filled with black berries and dried fruit with subtle spice nuances of black pepper and cloves.
- 415 Peter Lehmann "Clancy's Red", Barossa Valley 2016 30.00
Successive vintages of Clancy's have gained major Australian, American and UK recognition for giving a top-quality red wine at a very fair price. A blend of Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc, it is a rich, flavorsome wine without a rich, expensive price.
- 314 Mollydooker "The Boxer" Shiraz, South Australia 2017 45.00
This is the wine that started the Mollydooker craze back in 2004. Matured 11 months in American oak, 60% new, The Boxer Shiraz gives a deep garnet-purple color and aromas of creme de cassis, blackberry preserves and mocha plus an undercurrent of vanilla and cedar. The palate is very generously fruited, offering a whopping mouthful of spiced blackberry flavors with a low to medium level of silky tannins, enlivening acid and a long finish.
- 550 Mollydooker "Two Left Feet" Red Blend, South Australia 2017 45.00
This blend of predominantly Shiraz, with Cabernet and Merlot in the mix, has been and continues to be our favorite of the entry level Mollydookers. It typically exhibits intense fruit, in both aroma and on the palate, and has good structure and a long finish to boot. But what makes it the most impressive of the starters for Mollydooker is its wonderful balance. Perhaps a bit less intense than the Boxer and a touch more round and fuller than the Maitre'd, the Two Left Feet seems to find the best in common ground of the entry wines to the portfolio.
- 379 Two Hands "Gnarly Dudes" Shiraz, Barossa Valley 2017 49.00
Two Hands Wines was founded in 1999 by Michael Twelftree and Richard Mintz. Their aim was, and still is, to produce the best possible wines from prized Shiraz growing regions throughout Australia. "Quality without compromise" is a core value that drives all decisions from fruit and oak selection to packaging and promotion. Winemaker Matt Wenk has been with Two Hands since 2002 and, together with Michael Twelftree, oversees every aspect of the winemaking process. The 2017 Gnarly Dudes shows notes of black cherry, fresh blackberry, and dark chocolate. Medium to full bodied with richness of fruit balanced by bright refreshing acidity
- 581 Two Hands "Angel's Share" Shiraz, Barossa Valley 2015 49.00
Another stellar wine from the Australian winery named to Wine Spectator's Top 100 for over 10 years in row. Two Hands Angels' Share refers to the small amount of wine that evaporates from the oak barrels during maturation. Medieval winemakers assumed that angels watched over their wines, and that they took their share. "The deep garnet-purple colored 2015 Shiraz Angel's Share opens with classic blueberry tart, chocolate box and licorice notes with a fragrant perfume of violets. Full-bodied, rich and decadent in the mouth, and yet eminently drinkable, it delivers a lot of fruit supported by velvety tannins and freshness that carries through the long finish." 91 WA

- 390 John Duval Plexus GSM, Barossa Valley 2012 59.00
John Duval began his self-titled label in 2003. Duval graduated from Adelaide University in 1973 with a degree in agriculture and winemaking before becoming a winemaker for Penfolds for the next 29 years. Duval was appointed Chief Winemaker at Penfolds in 1986 and was lucky enough to oversee one of the most dynamic periods of change in the Australian wine industry. He received Winemaker of the Year at the International Wine and Spirit Competition in London in 1989; Red Winemaker of the Year at the International Wine Challenge in London in 1991 and again in 2000; and saw the 1990 Penfolds Grange named the Wine of the Year by the prestigious US magazine Wine Spectator in 1995. Plexus is a blend of 51% Shiraz, 30% Grenache, and 19% Mourvedre. "Duval's regional red, which melds shiraz, grenache and mourvèdre together seamlessly, is a stunning rendition in the 2012 vintage. The Barossan origin is strong in all aspects of the wine, which shows deep blackberries and other red fruits on the nose in addition to some gently earthy and tarry meat accents, hints of nutty oak and a sense of vibrant ripeness. The palate delivers redder than expected fruit flavors. Grenache speaks strong here. Tannins are soft, supple and layered, and the wine occupies every corner of the mouth. Starts bright, builds full, finishes long, fades slowly." 94 JS
- 683 Mollydooker Red Blend "Enchanted Path", McLaren Vale 2012 105.00
"Dark and focused, expansive and juicy, with blackberry and black olive notes at the core. Offers hints of licorice and floral as the finish expands. Delivers ample depth, poise and expressiveness. Drink now through 2020. 1,327 cases made." 93 WS
- 656 Mollydooker "Carnival of Love" Shiraz, McLaren Vale 2016 110.00
"The full-bodied, opulent 2016 Carnival of Love Shiraz kicks off with scents of mint, raspberries, plums and dark chocolate. Those notes unfurl across the palate in slow-moving, velvety waves of flavor, picking up hints of anise, cinnamon and vanilla on the lingering finish. It's one intense, languorous rush of flavor and richness." 94 WA
- 637 Mollydooker "The Velvet Glove", McLaren Vale 2009 260.00
"The 2009 Velvet Glove is 100% Shiraz matured in American oak, 97% new. Very deep garnet purple colored, it gives intense warm blackberry, choco-mint, smoked bacon and marmite-toast aromas with nuances of coffee, roasted nuts and vanilla. Floral notes of violets and potpourri emerge after a few minutes. Very rich, very crisp, concentrated and full, there's a good backbone of firm, very fine tannins and crisp acid leading into the very long and layered finish. This is a very well balanced, structured wine that should begin to open-out with 2-3 years in bottle, drinking 2014 to 2024+." 97+ pts Wine Advocate

- 384 Viña Tarapacá Gran Reserva Carmenère, Maipo Valley, Chile 2017 29.00
Viña Tarapacá was founded in 1874, in the heart of the Maipo Valley. Their mission is to preserve the seal of high quality behind a wide range of wines focused on red wines. "Elegant, sleek, ripe dark fruit and a hint of wood smoke. It's seductive and youthful, a chocolate and cassis delight. There's pleasant fruit concentration with blueberry pie and spice. Cool and well made. There's lots of wine here." 91 Decanter
- 439 Santa Ema Amplus One Carmenere, Cachapoal Valley, Chile 2016 40.00
Santa Ema's founding Pavone family trace their history in Chile back to 1917 when they first came to the region as grape farmers. Nearly 100 years and three generations of hands-on experience gives Santa Ema a deep understanding of the Maipo Valley's unique terroir, and helps create some of the most irresistible wines in Chile. Amplus is a Latin word that means important, honorable, and distinguished-concepts that clearly define the wines in Santa Ema's Amplus line. The Carmenere-based blend contains 10% Syrah and 5% Cariñena.” Peumo is one of the most famous areas for carmenère in Chile. The cool air that follows the Cachapoal River down from the Andes meets the intense sun of the area, allowing the vines to mature their fruit while sustaining freshness in the grapes. This 2016 is packed with red fruit, graciously combined with herbal notes in a texture that feels soft and friendly, lasting on a slightly chocolatey finish.” 93 W&S

- 446 Concha y Toro Carmenère Peumo Terrunyo “Block 27”, Rapel, Chile 2017 66.00
The Peumo Vineyard is located 170 m above sea level and extends across the rolling hills along the Cachapoal River on the terraces of the Coastal Mountain Range. The vertically positioned and cordon-pruned vines come from pre-phylloxera vine stock. The deep soils have a top layer of clay that enables them to retain moisture and allows the vines to remain active until the harvest in late May. It also helps control plant vigor and growth. Deep, dark violet-red. is wine shows all the character of pure Carmenere with notes of blueberries and wild berries, and hints of cedar and violet. The palate is fruity and tasty with rich acidity and sweet tannins. Its abundant fruit lends a long finish.
- 476 Viña Tarapacá Gran Reserva Etiqueta Azul 2013, Maipo Valley, Chile 74.00
“Opaque ruby. Ripe blueberry, cherry and cassis on the powerful nose, joined by a smoky nuance and a hint of vanilla as the wine opens up. Smooth, smoky and concentrated, offering black and blue fruit flavors complemented by suggestions of cracked pepper, mocha and licorice. Finishes sweet and impressively long, with a spicy jolt of cracked pepper, repeating smokiness and supple tannins coming in late.” 92 V, 94 JS
- 447 Viña Tabali “Payen”, Limari Valley Chile 2007 89.00
Vina Tabali’s impressive lineup of wines is produced entirely from cool-climate Limari fruit. Tabali’s inaugural vintage of Payen is a cuvee of 100% Syrah selected from the best blocks of the winery’s three vineyards in Limari. “The 2007 Payen was aged for 20 months in new French oak. Smoke, black olives, brier, mineral, and assorted black fruits lead to a wine with excellent natural acidity, outstanding density and richness, and terrific complexity. This exceptionally lengthy offering will benefit from another 4-5 years of cellaring and offers a drinking window extending from 2016 to 2022. It ranks with finest Syrahs I have tasted from South America.” 94 WA
- 329 Viña Montes Purple Angel, Rapel Valley Chile 2015 120.00
Dark, full-bodied, and herbaceous with a spicy kick, Carménère has found great success in Chile, far from its birthplace of Bordeaux. Although Carménère once accompanied Malbec and Petit Verdot as a minor blending grape in Bordeaux, it is now virtually extinct there, though it has been thriving since the mid-nineteenth century in Chile. Originally mistaken for Merlot, it is now successful of its own accord and plantings continue to increase. It is bottled both on its own and as part of Bordeaux-inspired blends. “This is perhaps the greatest Purple Angel ever. Full body, tight and compressed with an amazing texture and density. Fantastic fine tannins that are silky and polished. I love the energy and intensity. A blend of 92% carmenere and 8% petit verdot. One for the cellar but I can’t wait to drink it again.” 99 JS
- 385 Viña Montes Alpha M Santa Cruz, Rapel Valley Chile 2011 130.00
This extraordinary wine represents a dream come true for the original founders of Montes: to produce a ‘first growth’ that can stand alongside the world’s other finest wines. Production of Montes Alpha M is extremely limited and vintages are only released if our head winemaker Aurelio Montes considers that the quality of the wine is up to demanding standards.”The 2011 Montes Alpha M is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon with some Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot. 2011 was a bit cooler than 2010, and the wine might have more edges, and a little higher acidity. I find better balance in this 2011 compared with the 2010, with nerve and acidity, volume and great balance. The nose is still closed, less expressive and benefits from air, but there is a greater sense of harmony and integration, and I think in the long run it will be a better wine. This is a classic. Drink 2015-2027." 94 WA

- 491 Concha y Toro Cabernet Sauvignon “Don Melchor”, Maipo, Chile 2015 170.00
Don Melchor is the flagship wine of Concha y Toro, a 100% Cabernet Sauvignon cuvee that was started in 1987. It is one of Chile’s senior iconic wines. “The aromas of lead pencil, blackcurrant and tar are impressive with just a hint of fresh herb. Sweet tobacco. Iodine. Full body, very tight and polished with ultra-fine tannins and a refined, textured finish. 92% cabernet sauvignon, 7% cabernet franc, 1% petit verdot. Drink in 2022.” 98 JS

Mud House is a medium-sized New Zealand winery that has staked a claim on some of New Zealand’s best wine land, with vines in Marlborough, the Waipara Valley, and Central Otago. Mud House has been a participant in the New Zealand Winegrowers’ Sustainable Winegrowing program since 2001.

- 482 Felton Road Bannockburn Pinot Noir, Central Otago, New Zealand 2014 78.00
Felton Road is a small, artisan producer of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Riesling. Established in 1991 and Demeter-certified, Felton Road has quickly gained a reputation as one of New Zealand’s leading premium, biodynamic wine producers. Their vineyards are some of the world’s southernmost in latitude. The expression, “growing on the edge,” has real meaning in Central Otago, with the lowest rainfall and lowest temperatures of any agricultural region in New Zealand. “A handy array of bright red berries, orange citrus rind, then toasty mocha oak spice, some darker red plum and mouth-wateringly sweet fruit aromas on offer. Very bright, just-ripe fruits, liquorice and cinnamon, this smells vibrant and full of life. The palate has a soft, supple and creamy core with a glossy, fluffy mid-palate; tannins fan out even and long, smooth, velvety and quite plush, gently musky. Good balance and approachability, concentrated and pure. Drink now.” 94 JS

South Africa

- 622 Indaba Braai Cabernet Sauvignon, West Cape South Africa, 2018 30.00
The Indaba brand was founded in the early 1990’s in conjunction with the newly democratic South Africa by long time US wine importer Cape Classics. The name Braai comes from the Afrikaans word braai, which means “to grill”. Traditional Braais are celebrations of cooking (grilling meat predominantly) and the rituals surrounding the event; the building of the fire, the preparation of the meat, the consumption of beer or great wine during the process. This wine is a bold Cabernet blend consisting of 88% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc, 2% Petit Verdot and 1% Malbec. The wine displays aromas and flavors of dark berries, earth and smoke – the ideal complement to a wide range of fire roasted meats.
- 441 Raats Red Jasper, Stellenbosch, 2015 32.00
Red Jasper is a tribute to Bruwer Raats’ late father, Jasper, who was one of Raats’ founders and the viticulturist for nine years. This complex Cabernet Franc-driven Bordeaux blend shows blackberry and black cherry on the nose, along with the perfume and violets one would expect from an 60% Cabernet Franc wine. The blend is 60% Cabernet Franc, 24% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Petit Verdot, 6% Merlot, 2% Malbec. " The 2015 Red Jasper is a blend of 48% Cabernet Franc, 36% Malbec, 9% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Merlot and 2% Petit Verdot. It has an elegant bouquet with a light marine influence infusing the blackberry and boysenberry fruit, hints of green bell pepper and peat. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannin, well balanced and perhaps a little more broad shouldered than the other 2015s from Raats, yet with great persistence and freshness on the Loire-like finish. Apparently this has been an enormous success in the United States and I can understand why." 92 WA

- 376 Southern Right Pinotage, Walker Bay, 2018 40.00
Southern Right is re-defining Pinotage with this intense classically styled, clay-grown wine, packed with complex berry fruit, beautiful tannins and subtle wood spice. Full ripeness and the longer hangtime afforded by cooler sites, combined with the complex, more classic fruit aromas and structure resulting from clay-rich soil, make this wine a highly individual expression of South Africa's unique grape variety. "The 2016 Pinotage was matured in 10% new oak, this vintage seeing the introduction of 400-liter barrels with a light to medium-toast. This sample was actually showing a bit of reduction on the nose when I tasted it. The palate is medium-bodied with firm, slightly sinewy tannins compared to the 2015, veins of melted tar and licorice towards the somewhat "stocky" finish. Very fine, although it needs 2-3 years in bottle." 90 RP
- 423 Glenelly Grand Vin de Glenelly, Stellenbosch 2009 45.00
The Glenelly Estate was purchased in 2003 by May-Eliane de Lencquesaing, who for over 30 years was owner of the famous Pauillac property, Chateau Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande, a Grand Cru Classé in Bordeaux, France. "The 2009 Grand Vin de Glenelly is a late release because the Shiraz took longer to mature and integrate with the Cabernet. A blend of 42% Shiraz, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot and 4% Petit Verdot, it has an intense bouquet with licorice-tinged black fruit, incense and touch of marmalade. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, well judged acidity, and clove-tinged black fruit with a sedate and harmonious finish. This feels very accomplished." 92 WA
- 386 Raats Family Cabernet Franc, Stellenbosch 2014 65.00

The vineyard is named for its Red-shouldered Hawks and other birds of prey, who play an important role in Shafer's natural farming practices. “This is a perennially impressive wine, floral in a heady perfume of white roses. Port

- 511 Taylor Fladgate 10 yr Tawny Port, Portugal 55.00
"It is my opinion that Taylor's tawny ports are the best of their type. When tasted against other tawnys, they all exhibit more aromatic personalities, greater fruit and ripeness, and a wonderful sweetness and length. The Ten Year Old Tawny is a personal favorite, as well as a great bargain among many ports." 93 WA
- 522 Taylor Fladgate 20 yr Tawny Port, Portugal 85.00

"Sporting an opaque, black-colored robe with dark purple trim, the 2003 Fonseca Vintage Port exhibits a nose of profound depth. Its sweet black mass of dark fruit and spice aromas leads to a character of immense depth, richness, and weight. Full-bodied, viscous, and almost impenetrable, this dense, backward port is powerful and exceptionally long in the finish. Possibly the most masculine Fonseca I've ever encountered, it coats the taster's palate with licorice, jammy black fruits, and notes of chocolate that last for over a minute. This blockbuster will require at least three decades to fully blossom." 96 points Wine Advocate
- 502 Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port 2003, Portugal 145.00
"The 2003 Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port improved each time I raised it to my nose or mouth. It displays a black color and a salty, graphite-laced nose packed with sweet black fruits that is reminiscent of a stellar vintage of Chateau Latour. With air, notes of molasses, burnt sugar, spices, and jammy plums emanate from the glass. Full-bodied, hugely dense, immensely rich, as well as thick, this behemoth is also amazingly balanced and harmonious. Raisins, molasses, licorice, black cherries, plums, and a distinctive note of violets are found in its complex, seamless character. Its interminable finish reveals additional notes of chocolate, kirsch, red as well as black currants, dark cherries, and rose blossoms. Armed with exceptional power, depth, and purity, this Taylor will proudly stand shoulder to shoulder with the finest ever crafted by the Fladgate Partnership. Projected maturity: 2035-2060.” 98 points Robert Parker

520 Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port 2000, Portugal 165.00

“Among the most saturated blue/purple/black-colored examples of the vintage, Taylor's 2000 tastes like a young vintage of Chateau Latour on steroids. Aromas of graphite, blackberry liqueur, creme de cassis and smoke jump from the glass. Spectacularly concentrated and enormously endowed, with sweetness allied to ripe tannin, decent acidity, and layer upon layer of fruit and extract, this is the leading candidate for the port of the vintage. Anticipated maturity: 2010-2040.” 98 points Robert Parker
